Six Cole Porter Song Hits Heard In Quilna's New Film

'Something To Shout About" Scheduled To Open Friday Night, Featuring Don Ameche And Janet Blair

Six grand new song hits written by Cole Porter, including "You'd Be So Nice To Come Home To," will be song in "Something to Shout About," scheduled to open at the Friday preview at the Quilna theatre. This fast and furious fun frolic features Don Ameche, Janet Blair, Jack Oakie and a host of other favorites. "The Meanest Man in the World," a Jack Benny laugh riot, and "Time to Kill," starring Lloyd Nolan and Mike Shayne, will show thru Friday

Mary Field plays the role of the man chasing spinster, Amelia Hooker, who makes life miserable for Gildersleeve in the rib-crackling comedy, "The Great Gildersleeve," currently showing at the State. Harold Peary of radio fame has his first leatured role. A tropical film about the British Commandos and their efforts to expose a vicious group of spies overating in England is "Gorilla Man," which completes the bill.

The Majestic currently is presenting "Lucky Cisco Kid" and 'Saboteur.'

The long awaited star-studded "Star Spangled production, Rhythm," featuring 40 top ranking Hollywood stars, commences an engagement at the Ohio theatre on Saturday. A few of the leading players are Bing Crosby, Bob Hope, Fred MacMurray, Ray Milland, Dorothy Lamour, Mary Martin, Dick Powell, Alan Ladd, Rochester, Victor Moore and Jerry Colonna. Ending Friday will be story based on the life of Former President Andrew Johnson. Van Heflin portrays the former presi-

The picture "Pituri" now running at the Sigma theatre took a year and a half of back-breaking work to make. Equipment, laboratory work, transportation, a food supply and climatic conditions, all presented their problems to the producers of this epic of the Australian wilderness. The equipment, in fact sound trucks, studio lights, booms, dolleys and all regular studio paraphernalia had to be used for the actual production. Much of the equipment was transported by camelhack to the deserts of Central Australia and the wastes of Queensland. The camels were then truly the ships of the desert. The emall. lighter equipment was carried by native porters and the
