

Bannister Rides Featured On Air Broadcast Carnival

"The Case Of The Lovelorn Seal" Is Friday Night Episode Of "Adventures Of The Thin Man"

Bannister rides at a penny 2 slide feature the carnival staged by Betty Lou and Wilbur on the "Tommy Riggs and Betty Lou" show Friday over WEAJ at 10 p. m. (EWT). When one of the young acrobats sails off the track into a bucket of lemonade, there's trouble with Mrs. McIntyre, who is placated by receiving the total take from the carnival for her defense stamp fund.

It's a crowded train that Nick and Nora Charles take on their way West. The case of the Lovelorn Seal, the episode of "The Adventures of the Thin Man" for Friday over WABC at 8:30 p. m., EWT. On board are such prominent figures as Pres. Taft, the ring-leader of a troupe of trained seals traveling to fill an important engagement, Gilbert Gordon and Natacha Novello, two of Hollywood's most glamorous stars, Spike and the Gipper, of the underdog and Elton Carson, an ex-champion who makes only a brief appearance due to the fact that she is strangled early in the script.

Good danceable, listenable music must be the success formula of Abe Lyman, who recently celebrated his 20th anniversary as a band leader. For "Waltz Time" Friday over WEAJ at 9 p. m., EWT. Lyman has scheduled two timeless favorites, "Kiss Me Again," by Victor Herbert, and Silenus' "A Little Love, a Little Kiss."

California gets the request day nod on "Lovelorn Roundup" Friday over WEAJ at 10 a. m., EWT, when Louise Massey sings "Three Thousand One Hundred Twenty One Miles Away" for Long Beach, St. Paul, Minn. also will be saluted by the Westerners, with "Shortnin' Bread." The group also will sing "Down Yonder" and "Keep the Home Fires Burning."

Lions on their trail give Truck Drivers Stumpy and Cottonseed the jitters when they start thru the African jungle to rescue the plot of a wrecked bomber plane in the episode of "Road to Danger" Friday over WEAJ at 11:30 p. m., EWT.

DEBATE IS SET FOR TUESDAY AT ST. ROSE SCHOOL

Current Events Clubs Play Prominent Part In Instruction Program

By MARY JEANNE OVERHOLTZ
Next Tuesday afternoon, four members of the Civics class will present a debate. Resolved: "That the Government of the United States Should Own and Control Telephone and Telegraph Systems." Francis O'Boyle and Milton Parent will take the affirmative side, and Jim Lausa and Rose Mulcahy will argue for the negative.

Thursday afternoon the sophomore Latin class held another meeting of the Tenth Legion Latin club, with Joe Nauglesen acting chairman. Talks were given by Mary Jo O'Connor, Dorothy Burden, and Les Weber. A contest then was held, in which Jim Baker was chairman.

The junior and senior Civic and Sociology class held a Current Events meeting today, with Jim Gelo acting chairman. Brief talks on current subjects were given and a class quiz was conducted.

Wednesday and Thursday, each member of the sophomore English class presented an interesting incident of their life. These were given in connection with the study of floor talks.

There now are four members of the senior shorthand class who have passed 100 words per minute in strange diction. They are Margie Quinn, Mary Ann Riethman, Mary Jeanne Overholtz and Barbara Barnes. Marie Infante, Bette Ellerbrock, and Mary Pennington have recently passed 80 words per minute.

The senior typing class has finished work on folding, binding and endorsing legal documents. The students now are beginning work on commercial drafts.

Today the freshman history class held its weekly Current Events meeting. Talks were given by Emmett Holmes, John Davis and Jackie Archer. Questions in the class quiz were asked by Emmett Holmes, Robert Gibson and George Pentenburg.

WAPAKONETA BLACKOUT PASSES REQUIREMENTS

(Lima News Bureau)
WAPAKONETA, April 9—This city and Auglaize-co joined 18 other counties in the northern part of the state Thursday night in test blackout.

An alert was sounded at 8:05 (slow time), followed 20 minutes later by a general "air raid" alarm.

City and county civilian defense officials early Friday had not reported any violations and it was believed that the county as well as the city had successfully passed the requirements set up by the state.

RED CROSS COLLECTIONS HIT $329 DURING WEEK

(Special To The Lima News)
ST. MARYS, April 9—Collections for the West Auglaize chapter of the Red Cross War fund amounted to $329.20 at a St. Marys theatre during the week which ended April 7. Volunteer workers of the chapter made the collections at each performance during the week.

William Utrecht, chapter treasurer, said that it appeared today that the chapter has exceeded its quota of $38,800 altho complete figures are still unavailable.

FAMOUS PRODUCT OF CALIFORNIA CUCAMONGA VALLEY

The I. V. C. Wineries, producers of I. V. C. Gold Medal Wines, owns and operates the largest vineyard in the world. It comprises 5,000 acres in Cucamonga Valley, one of the best known of California grape-growing districts. Out of this great tract come 23 selected varieties of wine grapes. They are the chief reasons why I. V. C. Wines are among the finest produced in the Western Hemisphere. The grapes are grown, the wine produced and bottled by I. V. C.—controlled quality from grape to consumer.

I. V. C. Wines are bottled under two distinctive labels. The Gold Medal Wines represent the finest I. V. C. vineyards and the Cucamonga Brand is offered at more popular prices. Obtainable in both lines are all the popular types of dinner and dessert wines, including Port, Sherry, Muscatel, Sauterne, Burgundy, Rhine Wine and Grignolins, as well as Champagnes and sparkling Burgundys and Canelli.
