Blondie, Dagwood Become Blood Donors For Red Cross

Marlene Dietrich, John Wayne, Randolph Scott And Frank Craven To Stage "Pittsburgh"

Blondie and Dagwood go to the Red Cross to make a blood donation, in the "Blondie" episode on Monday, at 7:30 p. m. E.W.T. over WABC. As in everything else in the life of the Bumsteads, unpredictable things happen, altho none of them are serious enough to prevent their contributing the usual pint of blood apiece.

Marlene Dietrich, John Wayne, Randolph Scott and Frank Craven of the original film cast of "Pittsburgh," present a radio adaptation of that popular picture, when they star in the "Screen Guild Players" broadcast Monday, at 10 p. m., EWT, over WABC.

Launching of the greatest single money raising campaign in world history, the Treasury department's drive to sell 13 billion dollars of government securities. will be marked in a special series of broadcasts over WJZ. Coincident with the opening of the drive on Monday, formally called the "Second War Loan," WJZ will present a special address by W. L. Hemingway, president of the American Bankers-assn. He will be heard this evening from 7:15 to 7:30 p. m., EWT, stressing the importance of the campaign.

In a second broadcast on Saturday, April 17, there will be a further discussion of the drive by Emil Schram, president of the York Stock Exchange. Speaking from 10:30 to 10:45 p. m., EWT; Scrram will urge nationwide cooperation in the purchase of the new securities.

John Nesbitt, famous radio and film commentator, will be the vis- EWT). iting guest star on the Monday broadcast of "Ceiling Unlimited." over WABC at 7:15 p. m., EWT. Nesbitt will tell the story of the secret Aircraft War Production

Sonja Henie And John Payne Stars Of Lyric Hit Tuesday

Ice-Skater Featured In Romance Of Frigid Zones; Sammy Kaye And Orchestra Provide Music; "A Man's World" Also Scheduled

"Iceland," a torrid story about America's outpost in the frigid zone, which was presented at the Majestic Sunday and Monday, moves to the Lyric theatre Tuesday to show for three days. This comedy stars beautiful and graceful Sonja Henie and handsome John Payne, along with Sammy Kaye and his famous orchestra. "A Man's World," also will show. Ending Monday will be "Smith of Minnesota" and "Riding Thru Nevada."

Screwy antics highlight the adventures of Jimmy Rogers, Noah Beery, Jr., and Mary Brian in the new comedy western, "Calaboose," current_attraction at the Sigma. "Shadow of a Doubt," dealing with a criminal who takes refuge in the home of relatives completes the program.

All who saw "Star Spangled Rhythm," at the Ohio theatre over the week-end, hailed it as an outstanding production and some have indicated that they plan to see it the second time. Crowded with stars, including Bob Hope, Alan Ladd, Rochester, Dick Powell and Betty Hutton, it tells about a studio gateman who tells a he to his son, who is in the Navy, and what happens.

Monday and Tuesday will be the final days for the showing of "Ten Gentlemen from West Point," starring George Montgomery, at the Lima Drive-In
