

Henry Aldrich Enjoys New Romance--Sight Unseen

"Studious" Frank Morgan To Assume Cloak Of Dignity For All-Out Laugh Spree Thursday

A mail-order romance misses delivery for Henry Aldrich when he finds that beautiful handwriting doesn't always denote a beautiful face in "The Aldrich Family" over WEAF on Thursday at 8:30 p. m. (EWT.) Henry's susceptible heart thumps overtime when he receives an admiring letter from one Myrtle Drinkwater in neighboring Abbott City. That it might have been written on a dare doesn't enter Hank's mind. He just knows that the missive has been countersigned by the young lady's lips in peppermint rouge.

Trying to get to the bottom of the radio rating whys and wherefores... "Studios" Frank Morgan will assume a cloak of dignity only to give it up in favor of frantic antics in another all-out laugh spree Thursday (WEAF, 8 p. m. EWT.). The tyrant of the Higgins roost—Baby Snooks—will befuddle and bewilder her martyred "Daddy" until he seriously considers hari-kari.

In cooperation with the Cincinnati public school system and the American Education Press, of Columbus, "America's Town Meeting of the Air" will dedicate this broadcast for Thursday to the topic "Are Eighteen-Year-Olds Qualified to Vote?" from this city. The program will be heard over WJZ from 8:30 to 9:30 p. m. EWT.

Having experimented with a guest star for one broadcast, Jimmy Durante, Garry Moore and Xavier Cugat have decided that they want to be alone together for the broadcast which will be heard on Thursday, at 10 p. m. EWT, over WEAF. The Billie Burke scored a big success in her recent appearance on the show, the three permanent comics have decided to dispense with guest stars, at least for the time being. When millions of movie-goers watched bull-necked William Bendix scrap his way thru "Wake Island," few imagined that he is really a mild-mannered, soft-spoken gentleman of the best drawing rooms of society. (Editor's note: Few indeed!)

But such is Bendix the dilettante, Dendix the sophisticate—he of the white gloves and savoir faire. Such, anyway, is what he'll try to prove to the radio world when he makes his second guest visit to the "Rudy Vallee" program Thursday (WEAF, 9:30 p. m. EWT), to return to his home town which turns out to be Vallee's village.

Three comedians and one of radio's top singers of popular songs comprise the guest star lineup for the "Stage Door Canteen" on Thursday at 9:30 p. m. EWT, over station WABC. Victor Borge, the Danish pianist-comedian; Zasu Pitts of the flutery hands and quavery voice, and Jerry Lester, for whom it will be the second successive appearance on the show, are the three comics, and Barry Wood is the soloist.

HOLD EVERYTHING

OHIO WILL MAINTAIN HIGH SHEEP POPULATION

COLUMBUS, O., April 15 (AP)—Ohio will maintain a sheep population of about 2,250,000 head in 1949, approximately the same as last year, Lawrence K. Bear of the Ohio State university animal husbandry department estimated today. Preliminary reports from other states indicate there will be a slight decrease in the number of sheep raised thruout the nation, he said.

Dramatic Guerrilla Warfare Portrayed On Quilna Screen

"Chetniks" Starts Friday Night, Picturing Ambush Of Tank Column And Destruction Of Troop Train

Guerrilla heroes come into their own in the new picture, "Chetniks," which commences an engagement at the Quilna theatre Friday night. Said to be as thrilling as today's headlines, the picture shows in graphic detail a Nazi troop train destroyed, an enemy tank column ambushed and a Gestapo chief assassinated while the courageous guerrilla heroes hold Hitler's legions at bay. "Margin for Error," with Joan Bennett and Milton Berle, also will open. Ending Friday afternoon is "Something to Shout About."

A daring "spook party" is expected to attract hundreds of persons to the Ohio theatre Thursday night. Doors will open at 11 o'clock and the daring, blood-curdling show will start at 11:30 p. m. One of the features will be the irresistible "vampire" but girl. On the screen will be a suspense hit, "The Face Behind the Mask," with Peter Lorre. "Star Spangled Rhythm" with 40 big stars, will resume its run on Friday.

Now showing at the State are two first class productions—"Variety Show" and "Three Hearts for Julia." In the first hit, Fred Waring and his popular Pennsylvaniaans have the lead roles and also featured are Dick Powell, Priscilla Lane and Rosemary Lane. The other picture has Ann Sothern and Melvyn Douglas in the principal roles.

Commencing Friday at the Lyric will be "Blocked Trail," featuring the Three Mesquiteers which deals with the murder of an eccentric old miner and the attempts to locate a hidden mine. "Scotland Yard," also will start Friday, "Icebound" and "A Man's World," show thru Saturday.

Beautiful Frances Gifford gets involved with Henry Aldrich in the new comedy, "Henry Aldrich Gets Glamor," currently flashing on the screen at the Sigma. She plays the role of a glamorous movie queen and Henry meets her when he wins a trip to Hollywood via a magazine contest. "The Kid Rides Again," with Larry Crabbe, also shows.

Showing Thursday thru Saturday at the Majestic will be "Sons of the Pioneers" and "Mystery of Marie Roget."

Opening Friday at the Drive-In theatre will be "Whispering Ghosts," with Milton Berle, and "Sweetheart of the Fleet," starring Joan Davis and Jinx Falkenburg. Ending Thursday will be quitters' action picture, "The Blocked Trail," which comes Friday to the screen of the Lyric theatre for a two days run. At the opening of the film, the story is centered upon "Aluc," Martin (Walter Soderling), an eccentric and elderly recluse who lives in a remote canyon. For many years Martin has kept his activities unknown to the outside world, and the only companion he has is Brillant, a midget horse with a highly developed mentality. One day Martin is found murdered in the hills near his cabin and Brillant is missing. The Mesquiteers, who happen to be coming thru the territory at the time, capture the little horse. They are immediately pounced upon by the sheriff, however, and charged with having committed the murder. In order to prove themselves innocent, the trio stage a jailbreak and set about ferreting out the real killer. Lovely Helen Dorell has the leading lady role in the picture, playing the part of Martin's niece, Ann. Also in the cast are George Lewis, Charles Miller, Hal Price, Kermit Maynard, Pierre Lydon and Bud Geary.

Director Elliott Nugent solved neatly a problem in Axis relationships for the gay, romantic comedy, "The Crystal Ball," co-starring Paulette Goddard and Ray Milland, which is slated to open at the Ohio theatre on Saturday.

In this romantic adventure Ray is chased by two lovely ladies, Paulette Goddard and Virginia Field and is caught finally by one after many exciting experiences. The scene at a shooting gallery ends for Milland to hit three targets placed in a row—likenesses of Hirohito, Hitler and Mussolini. When he hits Hirohito, the Emperor of Japan kicks der Fuehrer, next to him, in the pants. When Milland scores a bull's eye on Hitler, Adolf kicks Mussolini in the same place. But whom is Benito to kick in the progression? Nugent's solution: Mussolini kicks himself—which some competent authorities say is exactly what is happening on the international scene.

At 11:30 p. m. Thursday a daring "spook" show will be presented on the Ohio stage along with the screen play, "The Face Behind the Mask." The Vampire but girl is one of the highlights of the production which is in charge of Dr. Neff.
