

Al Sargent Takes Singles Pin Lead

Rolls 592, 'Spot' of 100 Gives Him First Over Vertz

Two Changes Among First 10 Leaders of Doubles

Al Sargent, who sports an all-time city tournament average of around 150, rolled into the singles lead of the 38th annual city tournament of the Madison Bowling Association Friday night at the Moderne Recreation Alleys as he netted 692 with a 100 pin handicap.

Sargent wrestled first place from Gabriel Vertz who had led with a 685 pin total. The new leader posted games of 200, 195 and 107 for his 592 gross, and oddly enough he hit his first place series after he had totaled only 365 in the doubles.

No other changes were made among the first 10 high of the singles, but two changes were affected in the doubles leaders. Bill Beyer and Bob Knudson moved into fifth place on a 1,230 pin aggregate including a 135 pin handicap and Stan Febock and Fritz Kaiser grabbed 10th place with 1,212 with the help of 200 pins "spot."

Beyer blasted out a 607 series on games of 210, 214 and 183 while Knudson was totaling 488. Febock had 537 and Kaiser had 475.

Paul Bernard smashed out the high individual series Friday night, a 631 set on games of 241, 200 and 190 in the doubles, but his partner, Herb Pierstorff, only had 436 and the duo netted only 1,130 with a 33 pin handicap.

Three other honor counts were registered in the minor events Friday night. Hank Grunert totaled 633 on games of 175, 211 and 233 in the singles; Dewey Lewis had 608 with a 226 opener, and Vic Koss had 606 with a third game of 243.

Ponzi Nears Cue Crown

KANSAS CITY—(U.P.)—Willie Mosconi's hopes of retaining his world pocket billiard crown flickered today as he challenged Andrew Ponzi, led by 358 points in their championship match. Ponzi won the eighth block of the 10-block, 1,250-point match Friday night, 129 to 114 in 11 innings. Ponzi had a high run of 41 and Mosconi 26.

The contestants end their play for a $1,000 purse tonight.

McGreane, Thompson Cop Doubles Title

Using a 31 pin handicap, Bill McGreane and Rudy Thompson won the Industrial Commission Bowling League doubles at the Plaza Alleys Friday night. McGreane hit 466 and Thompson 517 and the handicap gave them a 1,014 total.

Bob Keown and Bob Nelson were second with 1,012; Frank Fellows and Gil Kessler had 1,006; Walter Masse and Henry Nelson had 983, and C. L. Miller and Walsh had 962.

Bob Pastor Enlists in Army Ski Troops

ALBANY, N. Y.—(U.P.)—Heavyweight Bob Pastor of Saratoga Springs, N. Y., began a week's furlough today after enlisting in the army. An experienced skier, Pastor said he applied for service with the Army ski troops Friday. He is to report Friday at the Camp Upton, N. Y., reception center. Married and the father of two children, Pastor had been a production clerk at the General Electric plant in Schenectady since last November.

Warmerdam in Pre-Flight

CHAPEL HILL, N. C.—(U.P.)—Cornelius Warmerdam, the world's top pole-vaulter, is still hammering at the 15-foot mark, but now it is to scale a straight wall instead of soaring over a cross-bar. Meeting other training hazards as a member of V-5 officer indoctrination at the Navy pre-flight school here has made Warmerdam "a little stiff, but I'm in pretty good shape and expect the kinks to limber out."

Seeks Cue Crown

Engaged in a challenge match with Willie Mosconi for Mosconi's world pocket billiards crown, Andrew Ponzi of Philadelphia, shown above, took a big lead. The match is being played in Kansas City. Ponzi has held the title twice before.

Connie Schwoegler Cracks 652 Series

World's champion Connie Schwoegler regained his pre-title form Friday night and blasted out a 652 series in the Classic League at Schwoegler's Alleys for the individual honors of the league and city.

The Classic League was the only loop in action Friday night and it wound up with Schwoegler Alleys tying the Straus Printers for the league championship. Shooting the high team count of the night, 2,964, Schwoegler Alleys won three games from the Stoughton Teddy & Mal team while the Printers won two of three games of their match with Modern Sales.

Eight honor counts were rolled in the Classic with Connie leading on games of 214, 258 and 180. Lee McLaughlin was second with 639 and Bob Schell hit 634. Five teams hit 1,000 games with the 1,055 middle game of the Schlitz Beers, featured by Connie's 258, being the high. Schwoegler Alleys had games of 1,009, 994 and 961. Ed Easter had 624, Vic Oakley 613, Joe Hackett 609, Tony Schwoegler 557 and Aubrey Ehrman 561.

Before returning here DiMarco was director of the Catholic Youth Center at St. Paul, Minn., and he formerly coached at Cretin high school, St. Paul, and at Cloquet, Minn.

Count Fleet Runs Today

Count Fleet meets a field of 11 in the $25,000 Wood Memorial, outstanding turf feature today, as Pimlico enters the second day of its spring meeting with twin features topping the card.

The swift Cape Cod, making his first start of the season, packs topweight of 118 pounds against five rivals in the $2,500—Chungking Handicap over a six furlong route while Star Copy, also making her seasonal debut, takes up highweight of 122 in the $2,500 Guadalupe Handicap at the same distance.

Cape Cod will be opposed by Hunor, Unchallenged, Sassy Lady, Abrasion, and Mercury. Star Copy will face Cassis, One Only, Kopla, Wishing, and Hyacinthus.

Although not listed as the feature, a six furlong dash for three-year-olds at Churchill Downs overshadows the headline event. Four prominent Kentucky Derby eligibles—Ocean Wave, Burnt Cork, No Wrinkles, and Noonday Sun—meet, with Ocean Wave a slight favorite.

At Narragansett, Far Avion, victor in the spring handicap last week, carries highweight of 118 over a mile and one-sixteenth route in the $2,500 feature. The son of Ariel will have DeValve, Incoming, Mixer, Through Bound, and Arthur Murray as his opposition.

Uncle Ray's Corner

A LITTLE SATURDAY TALK: MORE ABOUT NEW GUINEA

LAST Saturday we had part of a letter from Capt. James H. Mackin, an American army officer located "somewhere in New Guinea."

Much of that huge island fell into the hands of Japan early in the Pacific war. Since then the forces of the United Nations have been working, with some success, to drive out the Japanese soldiers. Several parts have been won back, and the rest no doubt will be freed in time to come.

New Guinea is no small island such as Guadalcanal. Far from it! It is one of the largest islands in the world, ranking next to Greenland. Some idea of its size can be gained from 'UNCLE RAY' this fact: If New Guinea could be laid down on this continent with one end at Montreal, the other end would reach a little past Jacksonville, Florida!

Let us go on with Captain Mackin's letter:

"One thing we have a lot of in New Guinea is scenery. We are located on some hills, overlooking the ocean. The sunrise and sunset are very beautiful, with the sea all shades of blue and green, and with the white spray of the surf against the reefs in the background.

"The island has abundant plant life. We are most interested in the coconuts, bananas and pineapples. The men go out into the jungle and cut bunches of bananas, then hang them in their tents and eat them when they ripen. They are very tasty.

"The fish in the nearby sea are as colorful as everything else about this place. The parrot fish is green and light blue, and it has green teeth.

"The natives live in thatched huts set up on poles, usually close to the water or over it. Each morning you see them in their outrigger canoes, going out near the reefs to fish. When not fishing or working for the army, they spend most of their time making grass skirts, strings of beads, models of boats, arm bands, spears and so on to sell to the soldiers. I think most of them have made more money than they ever knew existed.

"You see many funny sights. For example you may come on a native holding a flashlight in one hand and using the other hand to give the signal of a hitchhiker. You also may see a group of natives jabbering away like mad in their own language when all of a sudden one of them says 'O. K.' and ends the talking."
