ME OF STILL ANOTHER STORY ABOUT THE

"The Desperadoes" Scheduled At Quilna's Preview, Co-Featured With "Power Of The Press"

Scheduled to start at the Quilna theatre Friday night is "The Desperadoes," a story which deals with life in the 1880's and the operations of the bad men of that period. This new technicoler drama will feature Randolph Scott. Claire Trever, Glenn Ford and Evelyn Keyes, "Power of the Press." also is to open Friday night. Showing thru Friday afternoon will be "Hello, Frisco, Hello," which deals with old San Francisco. Daringly clothed in one of her most glamorous of costumes, Dolores Del Rio plays the role of a specialty dancer in a troupe travelling thru the Near East war zone, she being the romantic interest in Orson Welles' production, "Journey Into Fear." The film currently is at the Sigma. "Man of Courage," with Barton Mc-Lane, completes the program.

Ginger Rogers plays an adventurous American dancer exploring Europe in the ominous days just before the first blitz in "Once Upon a Honeymoon," at the State. Cary Grant and Walter Slezak also are starred. Also showing is "My Heart Belongs to Daddy." with Richard Carlson and Martha O'Driscell.

Thursday and Friday will be the final days for the showing of the thrilling "Edge of Darkness," at the Ohio theatre. Starring Errol Flynn and Ann Sheridan, it tells about the people in a small town in Norway who fight the invading Germans. Walter Huston and Nancy Colman are in the supporting roles.

New showing at the Drive-in theatre is "Rings on Her Fingers" a first class comedy featuring Henry Fonda and Gene Tierney.

Beginning Thursday and scheduled to continue thru Saturday at the Majestic are "Big Street" and "Raiders of the Desert."

Virginia Gilmore has her greatest dramatic role as a Nazi citizen torn between allegiance to the American newspaperman in "Berlin Correspondent," due Friday at the Lyric. Suspense and action are the keynotes of Johnny Mack Brown's new hit, "The Ghost Rider," which also opens.

One of the most magnificent dramas of the old West ever to thunder across the screen, "The Evelyn Keyes and Eugar Buchanan. Told in breathtaking Tech-Hollywood to be an epic drama of brawling men and tinselled women, of lawless wickedness and matchless heroism.
