Loftsgordon-Roland Second in Doubles

Frances (Bud) Carey featured Friday night's session of the Madison Women's Bowling Assn. city tournament at the Madison Alleys as she fired a 544 series to take over the lead of the Class B singles.

Mrs. Carey displaced Mildred Vick as the Class B singles leader as she blasted out rames of 180, 192 and 172 for her 544 series, the highest singles triple of the tourney. Mrs. Vick dropped to second place with 536, and Esther Werblow took third place with 528.

Four other changes took place in the minor events standings Friday night. Myrtle Loftsgordon and Harriet Roland moved into second place in the Class B doubles with a 999 aggregate on respective series of 512 and 487. -Bether Werblow and Mearl Lewis took sixth with 957, and Hazel Lanz and Betty Lanz took over eighth place with a 933 total.

The other change was in the Class B singles, Myrtle Loftsgordon assuming 10th place on a 491

Cross Plains and Stoughton bowlers competed on Friday night's squads but failed to roll into the money. Regina Gorman and Bertha Saeman totaled 892 for the best effort of the out of town Keglers in the Class B doubles; Sadie Oberg and Helen Prien of Stoughton followed with 883.

Jane Zach, Cross Plains, had 474 in the Class B singles, followed by Regina Gorman with 471. The Kate Miller-Laura Gornenthal duo hit 779 in the Class C doubles while Mrs. Gronenthal's 414 was the best effort of the out of towners in the Class C singles.
