The story of the rise and subsequent decentralization of American cities will be dramatized Sunday on "Unlimited Horizons" (WEAF, 11:30 p. m. EWT).

"Goony birds," the curious but not very bright little birds, feature in "The Battle of Midway," heroic battle of the U. S. Marines, which will be dramatized on the "Man Behind the Gun" program, Sunday at 10:30 p. m. (EWT) over WABC.

OPERATIC SOPRANO COMING

Agata Borzi, coloratura soprano, will appear as "Rosina" in "The Barber of Seville" opera to be presented in English Tuesday evening in South high school auditorium by the American Civic Opera Co. The opera is being sponsored by the music department of Lima public schools as Lima's feature in connection with observance of National Music Week.

COLORATURA-SOPRANO HAS LEADING ROLE IN 'THE BARBER OF SEVILLE'

Agata Borzi, young American coloratura-soprano, will appear in one of the principal roles of "The Barber of Seville" when the opera is presented Tuesday afternoon and evening in South High school auditorium by the American Civic Opera Company.

The opera, Lima's feature in observance of National Music Week, is being sponsored by the Music Department of Lima Public Schools of which William G. Temple is supervisor.

Twenty-two artists are in the company which is accompanied by its own orchestra. The evening performance will begin at 8:30 o'clock (Lima Time). There will be a matinee for high school students beginning at 3:30 p. m.

In her early twenties, Miss Borzi is a charming singer of many attainments. Her voice, brilliant in this rare gift of florid singing is equally beautiful, luscious and mellow in the more lyric music.

Impeccable musicianship, accuracy of intonation, glowing personality and charm of manner are said to be characteristics of this slight, dark, vivacious singer.

DELPHOS, May 1—Pvt. Bert Redmon of Delphos left Friday for Camp Van Dorn, Miss., after spending a 10-day furlough with his father, Philip Redmon of Delphos, and relatives in Lima.

Girl Scout Activities

Senior Scouts will meet Monday at 7:15 p. m. at 748 W. High-st to make a recording. The Senior Service Scouts will meet with Miss Elsie Brown, Monday at 7:15 p. m. at the Girl Scout Office. Plans will be made for a hike.

Jeanette Meloth, of Troop 7 of Zion Lutheran church, reports that the girls continued work on their Interior Decoration badge, working on their model rooms, and that a discussion was held on Girl Scout laws. Beverly Tarr passed Tenderfoot test during the meeting.

Troop 15, the Shawnee Senior Troop, under the leadership of Mrs. H. F. Kurtz, has been working on service projects for the last two months. They have packed and sent 12 boxes of food to the boys in service from Shawnee and have made scrap books of cartoons for the Canteen. The troop will assist with salvage pick-up of tin cans, silk or nylon hose and waste kitchen fats. They are working on house plans since they have an interest in Interior Decoration and will have victory gardens.

Lois Cottrell of Troop 17, reports that the troop practiced the play "Behind the Scenes" at their meeting and gave the play Thursday evening at the Leaders' Association Round-up. The troop spent Saturday afternoon at Stable Gables making preparations for the program.

Troop 23, of Parrot school, hiked to Schoonover park Wednesday and cooked gypsy stew and mock angel-food cake for their dinner. The troop is working on the Cook's badge and will soon complete the work. Mrs. Robert McGinness and Miss Ruth Ward accompanied the Troop.

Troop 2, of the City-bldg, hiked to Schoonover park Wednesday and popped corn at their camp fire. Troop 2 Senior Scouts met in the Girl Scout Office and worked on pins which they had been making and knitted articles. Several of the girls are knitting for the Red Cross.

Troop 6, meeting at Shawnee under the leadership of Mrs. Paul Hughes, reported having baked over 200 cookies for the Canteen.

this week. At their regular Monday meeting an Easter egg hunt was held after business had been finished. Prizes of war stamps were awarded to Miss Susan Morrison. Patrol 4, consisting of the youngest members of the troop, served refreshments at the party which followed.

The organization committee will meet Tuesday at 1:30 p. m. in the Girl Scout office. The Lima Girl Scout Council held its monthly meeting on Friday at the Y. W. C. A. Plans were made for a rally to be held at Memorial hall the first week in June. This will be held in the evening and parents will be invited. A camp reunion will be held in May and dates for both events will be announced later.
