'Silver Queen' And 'Madame Spy' Open At State Thursday

George Brent And Priscilla Lane Star In Society Drama; Connie Bennett Plays In

Co-seature

Scheduled to commence an engagement at the State Thursday is "Silver Queen," which deals with 1870 society with all its zest. George Brent and Priscilla Lane have the top roles in this society drama. "Madame Spy," starring Constance Bennett, also is to open. Currently at the State are "They Got Me Covered" and "Fiesta."

Mary Martin and Dick Powell form an attractive and tuneful due in "Happy Go Lucky" which comes to the Ohio Friday. The picture is filmed in technicolor and stars, along with Mary and Dick, Betty Hutton, Eddie Bracken and Rudy Vallee. There are five songs. "This Land Is Mine," shows thru Thursday.

On Wednesday and Thursday the Drive In theatre will present "The Pied Piper," one of the best pictures produced last year. It stars Monty Wooley and a host of other favorites.

A thrilling race with death for the life of a South American envoy motivates the action in "The Falcon's Brother," due to open Thursday at the Majestic along with "Sunset Serenade."

At the Lyric is "A Night to Remember," which deals with a Greenwich Village novelist who stumbles into a corpse and a murder mystery. Loretta Young and Brian Aherne have many thrills in this picture. Completing the Lyprogram is "Careful, Soft Shoulders," with Virginia Bruce
