Fitzsimmons Beaten as Pirates Defeat Dodgers

The New York Yankees, object of so many "tear 'em down" campaigns, cut loose with a moan of their own today—"break up Buck Ross.'

Record books lift Ross' hobbies as golf, hunting and fishing. But there isn't a member of the Yankees who won't swear that his pet avocation -and the one he is most skillful at—is bowling over the Bronx Bombers. Ross has never won as many as

10 games any year in seven seasons in the American League. However, he made up for that mediocre mark Friday by coming within a single hit of pitching's hall of fame when he cut down the Yankees with one scratch single to bring the Chicago White Sox a 3-0 triumph. Nick Etten's bounder in the second inning went for a hit when the pitcher knocked the ball down and lobbed it high to first. The official scorer gave Etten a hit rather than charge the hurler with an error because Ross hurt his hand

Another Ross Stars

Fred Fitzsimmons gambled and lost his chances of a pitching career in 1943 as the Pirates sent him to cover in the fourth and breezed to a 5-2 victory over the Dodgers. The Dodgers collected seven hits to Pittsburgh's five but were unable to solve Hank Gor-

Connie Mack generally brings up so many rookies each year that only a few get more than passing notice.

And, to attract the eye of the newspaper boys and the fans, the rookie must turn in more than an ordinary job. Which all brings us to one, Jesse Sandowal Flores, just an-

The Mexican recruit (he was born in Guadalajara) lost his first start to the Red Sox, a twohit, 1-0 game, in an excellent mound performance by Flores and his opponent, Tex Hughson. COUNT WHEN DEFENDING IT IS SELDOM you find a declarer, even among very ordinary players, who does not make some kind of count of the number of tricks in sight at a No Trump contract. The cardinal sin of No Trump hands - failure to count the tricks available-is committed much more by the defense. That is because often a defender lacks sufficient information. Absolutely, that's all the bidding there was. East made a business Schultz; Schneider and Spellman. Struck out: by Pearson 7, Schneidor penalty pass, expecting to beat the head off his vulnerable opponent, for a big set. West opened the heart 6 and the Q took the trick. South sent out the diamond K, which East took at once with the A, so he could open his spade suit with the 7. South ducked-bad bridgeand the singleton Q won for West. Still interested in his own suit while he had the club K for a reentry, West scored the heart A and K, then led the 3 to the dummy's 10. Came then the diamond Q. J and 8, and the spade K to the A. No matter what East now returned, the spade J and club A made enough tricks to give the declarer seven, his doubled contract. When West was in with the spade Q at the second trick, he should have counted thus: Declarer surely will take three tricks in diamonds, he has certainly one in sight in spades and one in clubs, and he already has one in hearts; if I build him another in hearts it will make the seventh he needs; my partner had to have somealmost sure-fire count if he will, thing in clubs to leave my double in, so that suit is our only hope. If he had reckoned thus and switched to a club, the contract would have been set two tricks. That would have been a better result than the not vulnerable 4-Spades which can be rather freakishly made by East. Your Week-End Lesson Do you know the penalties, under the new Laws of Contract Bridge, for these irregularities, after the opening bid of the auction has been made: 1. A bid out of turn, when it is the turn of the opponent at the offender's right? 2. A bid out of turn, when it is the turn of the offender's partner? 3. A double or redouble, when it is the turn of the opponent at the offender's right? 4. A double or redouble when it is the turn of the offender's partner? 5. A double or redouble in turn, but by a player who names an in-correct number of tricks or a wrong denomination? 6. A double of a bid by the
