

Claudette Colbert To Teach Song To Charlie McCarthy

"Family Hour" Program Salutes To U. S. Armed Guard In Sunday Broadcast

This is something like carrying coals to Newcastle. Claudette Colbert is going to teach Charlie McCarthy the song "Ooh La La" on the program Sunday over WEAF at 8 p. m. (EWT).

This Sunday's "Family Hour" dramatization salutes the U. S. Armed Guard — those men who have selected the dangerous assignment of manning the guns which protect our tankers, transports and cargo vessels all over the world.

Herbert Marshall, distinguished British acting star, will be heard as the commander of a British destroyer, suddenly handed an unusual assignment, when he plays the leading role in "Cargo of Innocence" on the "Radio Reader's Digest" on Sunday at 9 p. m. EWT, over Station WABC.

Richard Wagner's classic "Evening Star" from the opera, "Tannhauser," will be the featured song by John Charles Thomas over WEAF Sunday, at 2:30 p. m. EWT.

The dangerous and nerve shattering experiences encountered by the men who ride the PT boats for the U. S. Navy will be dramatized on "The Man Behind the Gun," Sunday, at 10:30 p. m. (EWT) over WABC.

Operating with the Consumers Interest Committee of Civilian Defense and with the Health for Victory club, the Lima Public Library has added many new books on nutrition and wartime meals.

Only a few are mentioned here, but there are many others and they may be borrowed from the Main Library.

"WHAT DO WE EAT NOW?" by Helen Robertson, Sarah MacLeod and Frances Preston is an understandable and comprehensive book to help the harried wartime wife and mother.
