National Maritime Day To Be Market Saturday On Air

Glamorous Lucille Ball, Screen Star, Joins Grouch Marx In Nostalgic And Very Gay Nineties Routine

"The U. S. Coast Guard on Parade" will celebrate National Maritime Day Saturday, WEAF 11:30 a. m., (EWT). An officer from the Coast Gurd and a maritime seaman in training at Ft. Trumbull will tell the story of maritime service and Coast Guard cooperation in delivering the goods to the fighting fronts.

Glamorous Lucille Ball, the screen star, joins Groucho Marx on his "Blue Ribbon Town" program Saturday, at 10:15 p. m. (EWT) over Station WABC, in a nostalgic and very gay Gay Nineties routine. Highlight will be Groucho's presentation of the touching ballad, "I'm Carrying a Torch for the Old Back Porch."

Frank "Bring 'em Back Alive" Buck will be guest of Bill Stern on "Sports Newsreel" Saturday, (WEAF, 10 p. m. EWT.) The program will be Bill's last in the Saturday evening spot. Beginning Friday, the "Sports Newsreel" will be heard Fridays from 10:30 to 10:45 p. m. (EWT).

Nelson Omsted, story teller, will present "A Far Cry," a shipwreck story by Capt. William Outerson, on his "World's Greatest Stories" program Saturday, (WEAF, 11:15 p. m. EWT). The story concerns a little boy and his mother cast adrift in a lifeboat after their vessel is wrecked.

Ravel's "Bolero" will be one of the five popular classics to be played by the Boston Pops orchestra on Saturday, at 8:15 p. m., EWT, over WJZ.

Ellery Queen will tell the "Adventure of the Fortune Teller" Saturday, (WEAF, 7:30 p. m., EWT). The story concerns a wealthy spinster, Amanda Moss, and a gypsy fortune teller who sees the future with uncanny accuracy. But Ellery makes a few predictions of his own.

Hertha Glaz, noted contralto of the Metropolitan Opera Co. will be the guest star on "Saturday Concert," to be heard over WJZ on Saturday, from 4 to 4:45 p. m., EWT.

Rear Adr. Ross T. McIntire, surgeon general of the U. S. Navy, will be heard from Washington when the American Medical-assn presents an episode called "Flash Burns" on the "Doctors At War" program Saturday (WEAF, 5 p. m. EWT).

Ernest Tubb, cowboy singing star of screen and radio, sings his new composition, "Walking the Floor Over You," when he appears as featured guest on "Grande Ole Opry," on Saturday, over station WEAF. Tubbs wrote both words and music for this selection, which is presented as highlight of a program of spirituals, American folk songs, hoedowns, and other down-to-earth entertainment.

A less lucid linguist than Nellie Revell might be confused by surnames as similar as those scheduled for "Nellie Revell Presents" Saturday, (WEAF, 10:30 a. m. EWT).
