

Tullalah Bankhead Visits Duffy's Tuesday Program

Work Of Troop Carrier Command In War Time To Be Described On Horace Heidt's "Treasure Chest" Broadcast

Tullalah Bankhead, named last week by New York drama critics as the outstanding actress of the year, will expose her histrionic talents to the critical gaze of Archie's untutored gang in a visit to "Duffy's" Tuesday over WJZ at 8:30 p. m. (EWT.)

The work of the Troop Carrier Command in war time will be vividly depicted when officers and men of that important branch of the service will appear as guests on Horace Heidt's "Treasure Chest" program over WEAF Tuesday at 8:30 p. m., EWT. In keeping with that motif all the commercials on the broadcast will be abandoned in favor of War Bond sales messages.

Skating Scenes Featured In Romantic Comedy At Lyric

"Johnny Doughboy," With Jane Withers And Patrick Brook Is Companion Feature Opening Tuesday

Scheduled to open Tuesday at the Lyric is "Ice Capades Revue," a hit film which presents a brilliant array of talent in one of the year's gayest and most entertaining romantic comedies. Ellen Drew and Richard Denning and a host of prominent skaters have the leading roles. "Johnny Doughboy," also at the Lyric, features Jane Withers and Patrick Brook.

Tuesday and Wednesday will be the final days for the showing of "It Ain't Hay," jollicking comedy starring Abbott and Costello, at the State theatre. The comedians have many adventures after they buy a horse. Tarzan fights the Nazi in his latest hit, "Tarzan Triumphs," which also will show thru Wednesday.

One of the finest pictures to come to Lima this year is currently showing at the Ohio. It is "The Human Comedy," starring Frank Morgan, Fay Bainter, James Craig and the ever-popular Mickey Rooney. Young Rooney is cast as a meek boy in this story which has joys as well as sadness.

Now showing at the Drive-in theatre is "Seven Days Leave," with Victor Mature and lovely Lucille Ball. Commencing Wednesday will be "A Night to Remember," a mystery featuring Lucretia Young and Brian Aherne.

At the Quilna is "The Moon is Down," a story about the Nazi in Norway. The heroic struggle of the inhabitants, their indomitable spirit and love of freedom, even in the face of mass executions, are vividly portrayed in the production. Also showing is "Quiet Please, Murder," with Gail Patrick and George Sanders.

"Mrs. Miniver," which was presented in Lima several months ago, returns to Lima Wednesday and will show at the Sigma theatre. It tells about a woman in London. Ending Tuesday will be "Air Raid Wardens," a comedy with Laurel and Hardy, and "Follow the Band," filled with music.

PASADENA'S BIRTHS RISE

PASADENA, Calif., June 1 — (UP)—The war apparently has had the curious effect of making Pasadena, formerly famous as a beautiful city in which to retire, a center for increase in birth rate. Births the past year reached an all-time high of 14.6 per 1,000 of population. More than 1,000, however, were born to non-residents of the city.

HITLER, PLEASE NOTE

NEW YORK, June 1—(INS)—American supplies to Russia are going over German rails—when the British and Russians took over Iran, they found a huge supply of tracks and ties sent by the Germans for future use there.
