Chicago Scores Four in Seventh Senators Cut Yanks' Lead to Three Games Thanks to the artistic ineptitude of the Brooklyn Dodgers, the St.

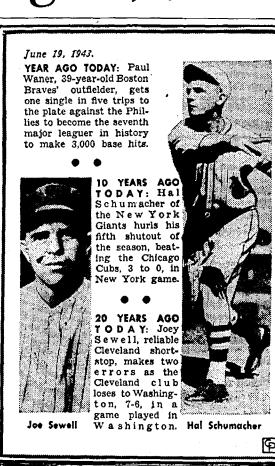

Louis Cardinals still were three games in front in the National League today. The Cardinals blew sky-high in the seventh inning with the score at 1-1 and the Chicago Cubs scored four times on no hits to breeze to a 6-1 victory. Johnny Hopp made two errors while Marty Marion and Walker Cooper each contributed one to present the Cubs with their gift runs. Claude Passeau won his fourth game while Max Lanier was suffering his fourth defeat. Phils Tally 9 in 6th
