

Henry Aldrich Picks A Picnic Pickle On Thursday's Program

Mills Brothers Sing Best-Seller Record Arrangement On Mary Astor Show; Dutch Foreign Minister To Talk

Henry Aldrich becomes the pursued, the pursuer and once again pursued in the picnic romance which features "The Aldrich Family" over WEAF on Thursday at 8:30 p. m. (EWT.) Gwendolyn Marshall's sweet talk has soured Henry on the prospect of taking her on the picnic long before the date for it arrives. The boy phones to break the engagement, only to have the young lady break it ahead of him.

The Mills Brothers sing "Paper Doll," the arrangement which sold 400,000 records in 60 days, when they appear as guests of Mary Astor, Mischa Auer and Charles Ruggles in the "Surprise Package" feature of their program, on Thursday, at 8 p. m., EWT, over Station WABC.

Dr. Eelco N. VanKleffens, Netherlands foreign minister, will appear on March of Time Thursday at 10:30 EWT over WEAF to tell the story behind the recent execution of 40,000 Dutchmen by the Nazi.

Monty Woolley, the man who came to the "Stage Door Canteen" last week, comes back, heard and all, for a second appearance in as many weeks on that series, on Thursday, at 9:30 p. m., EWT, over Station WABC. He'll be heard with Bert Lytell, officer-of-the-day, Raymond Paige's Canteen orchestra, and other guest stars.

Ring Crosby, who has been traveling around the country on a bond-selling tour, is back at his old stamping ground, the Music Hall, and with him on Thursday

FUNNY BUSINESS

"He couldn't get anyone to run the place on his vacation!"

PRIVATE BUCK . . . By Clyde Lewis

"Never mind running around for affidavits, Buck. You'll be credited for bringing down that plane!"

Horse Rewards Boy's Faith; Basis Of "My Friend Flicka"

Quilna Film Coming Friday Tells Of Odd Friendship Of Animal And Youth; "Desert Victory" Also To Be Screened

The love of a boy for a horse provides the basis for the story, "My Friend Flicka," coming to the Quilna theatre Friday at the preview showing with Roddy McDowall, Preston Foster and Rita Johnson in the leading roles. Also showing is "Desert Victory," the story of the route of Rommel by the British Eighth Army. Showing for the last time Friday will be "Crash Dive," starring Tyrone Power.

The girl who use to thrill audiences with her adolescent charm and golden voice has added the necessities of womanhood to star in "The Amazing Mrs. Holliday," coming Friday to the Ohio theatre. Deanna Durbin is the thrillingly beautiful performer of the film, with Edmond O'Brien, Barry Fitzgerald and Arthur Teacher in leading roles. "Eagles of the Navy," a two-reeler telling of the training of Navy pilots, is also offered. Showing for the final times Thursday is "Bataan," starring Robert Taylor.

The effect of war on a peaceful island in the South Seas is told in "Wings Over the Pacific," with fliers and bleached natives involved in romance, coming Friday to the Lyric theatre. The Three Mesquiteros star in the co-feature, "Santa Fe Scouts." Offered in familiarity Thursday are "Charley, Aunt," starring Jack Benny and "Sun Valley Serenade."

James Hilton's famous story, "Random Harvest," is the screen fare of the Sigma theatre, with Ronald Colman and Greer Garson in the lead roles. Colman is the unfortunate who has amnesia, and, recovering, falls in love with the same girl he had when he was suffering from loss of memory.

"The Mayor of 41th Street," and "Underground Agent" are currently being screened at the Majestic theatre.

Johnny Lydon portrays the role of America's modern schoolboy in the State film, "Henry Aldrich Gets Glamour." The second feature, "Lady Body Guard," stars Eddie Albert and Anne Shirley. Cary Grant and Jean Arthur are the stars of the current Drive-in theatre offering, "Talk of the Town." The next attraction, "Sons of Pioneers," comes Friday.

Deanna Durbin's professional hobby of keeping a collection of 16-millimeter prints of all her motion pictures is making thousands of service men happy.

Ever since Deanna started her career with "Three Smart Girls" several years ago at Universal, she has had a narrow-gauge but full-length copy of each of her ten productions made for her personal use.

Deanna's latest and most important picture, "The Amazing Mrs. Holliday," comes Friday to the Ohio theatre.

Up to the start of the war, Deanna ran the films at home when visitors requested to see any of them, re-ran them for her own professional credit study.

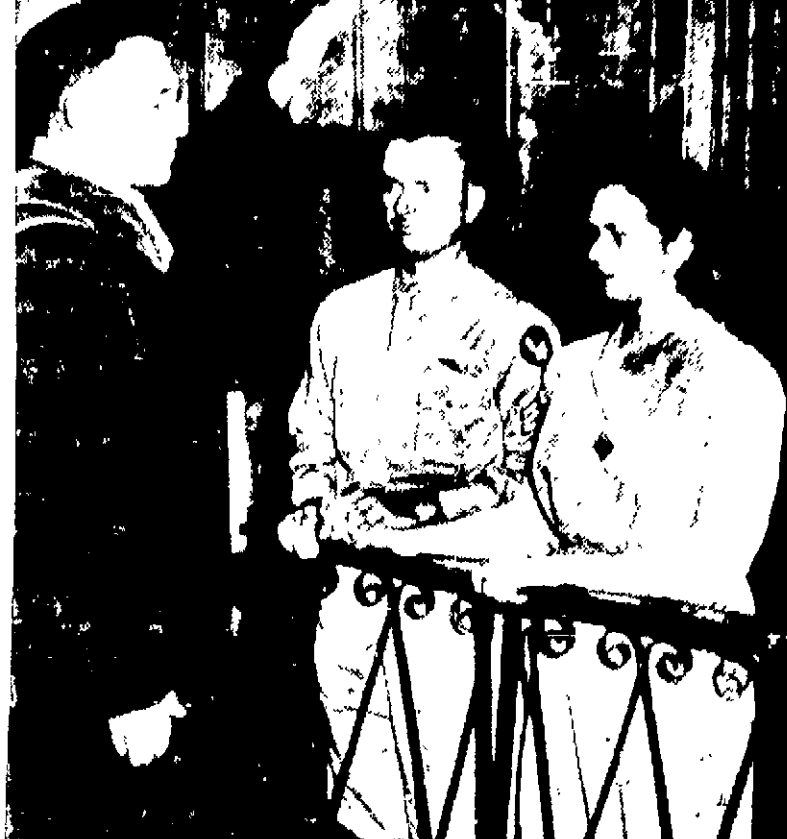

Came Pearl Harbor and Deanna felt that perhaps there were out-of-the-way camps and hospitals that were lacking in full sized picture equipment. She contacted the Red Cross.

Result is that her ten films, are going around a 16-millimeter "rent-out," playing on small screens, night throughout the nation. In one local case—a hospital for service men—Deanna sent along her own projection machine and screen.

Especially interesting is the fact that the picture marks the first starring appearance of the lovely Inez Cooper, an astonishingly beautiful girl borrowed from MGM studios for the occasion. Miss Cooper creates a distinctly favorable impression as the only female interest in an excellent cast which includes Edward Norris, Montagu Love, Robert Armstrong, Henry Guttman, Eric Adams and other talented performers.

The atmosphere and background of the South Sea island on which the story is laid have been skillfully simulated by Producer Lindesley Parsons, and Phil Rosen has contributed a fine job of direction.

AIRMAIL ROMANCE CLIMAX

A romance which began thru an introduction by mail and flourished in an exchange of airmail was climaxed at Los Angeles by the marriage of Sgt. Raymond Griffiths, 26, stationed at Albany, Cal., army base, and Beatrice Altendorf, 23, of Los Angeles. Griffiths, whose parents live at Mountain View, Mo., met his bride for the first on furlough shortly before their marriage ceremony performed by the Rev. R. C. Waddell (left).

that 20th Century-Fox had arranged for the filming of the novel in Technicolor. The film company has long been noted for its faithful reproductions of novels, including "The Grapes of Wrath," "How Green Was My Valley" and "This Above All."

Producer Ralph Dietrich, entrusted with the filming of the novel, selected Roddy McDowall to head the cast of "My Friend Flicka." Appearing in the film version of a best selling novel seems to be Roddy's strong point, since his work in "How Green Was My Valley" and "The Pied Piper" accounted for much of the success of these films.

Featured with Roddy are Preston Foster, long noted for his virile film portraits and Rita Johnson, who won the coveted role of Roddy's mother.

A thrilling tale of wartime intrigue in the South Seas is "Wings Over the Pacific," drama which opens an engagement at the Lyric theatre Friday.
