Gordon Bats Out of Turn, Yanks Tie, 2-2

Yankee Infielder Reaches His 'Low' Despite Home Run

Joe Gordon, New York Yankee second baseman, was the "goat" today for a bonehead dugout play by the Yankee brain trust that cost the American League champions a victory.

The score was deadlocked at with Boston Friday when Gordon blasted a double to score Nick Etten, Red Sox Manager Joe Cronin then proved thatthrough an error on the part of the Yankee dugout directors-Gordon had batted out of turn. Gordon was called out, the run was nullified and the game went on to a 2-2 deadlock when darkness closed in after 11 innings. Phils Trim Dodgers

Gordon's ninth-inning home run that tied the score spared him further embarrassment and kept Charley Kensloff's four-hitter from developing into a loss. Yank Terry and Mace Brown teamed to held the Bronx Bombers to six

In the National League, Hi Bithron almost single-handedly pulled the Chicago Cubs out of the cellar again with a sparkling two-hit pitching job that gave Chicago a 6-0 triumph over the St. Louis Cardinals in Wrigley Field's first twilight game in history.

Ouly Johnny Hopp and Dan. Litwhiler connected safely off Bithorn while the Cubs were making short work of Ernie White, Harry Brechen, Murray Dickson and George Munger. The Brooklyn Dodgers blew a chance to cut into the Cardinals' game and a half lead by bowing to the Philadelphia Phillies, 8-2. Coaker Triplett personally accounted for five Philadelphia runs with a pair of rousing triples to lead the 15-hit attack on Buck Newsom. Les Werber and Max Macon. Schoolboy Rowe gave up eight hits in winning.

Brewers, Indians Lose in AA Games

(By United Press)
Two second-division clubs staged an uprising in the American Association Friday night to knock off the leaders-both times with ninth inning rallies.

Last-place Louisville shoved over a run in the ninth inning to nose out the league-leading Indianapolis Indians, 5-4. Earl Reid of the Indians went the route and was pounded for 12 hits. Schupp, Johnson and Brown of the winners gave up seven hits.

Sixth-place Kansas City made it two straight over second-place Milwaukee, a ninth-inning rally netting two runs and a 4-3 victory for the Blues. Lloyd Christopher of Kansas City homered off Wes Livengood in the fourth with one man on. Tom Reis held the Brews to seven hits.

In a slugging match, Columbus shaded Toledo, 8-7 in 12 innings. The Hens got to four Red Bird pitchers for 16 blows, including a homer by Seinsoth in the sixth with two men on. Seinsoth went the entire distance for Toledo, giving up 18 hits.

Minneapolis made six hits good for three runs, and beat St. Paul. 3-2. Wilf LeFebvre allowed the Saints nine hits, while Art Herring lost on a six-hitter.

What's on the Air Effect of Trade on World Peace Features WIBA Show Tonight

Thomas W. Lamont, internation-al banker, Thomas J. Watson, in-dustrialist, and Eric A. Johnston, president of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, will participate in the discussion of "Peace Through World Trade" on the program, "For This We Fight," to be heard at 6 tonight over WIBA. Lamont will act as chairman. The speakers will explore the possibilities of business leading the way to permanent peace. Watson is an advocate of greater international trade; Johnston recently attracted national attention with his defense of "capitalism" and with friendly gestures toward organized labor, and Lamont has written widely on finance and international affairs.
