Joe Brown Has Starring Role At Quilna; Musical Comedy Slated To Open Tuesday At Lyric

Hundreds of Lima and area residents are expected to view and hear Charlie Barnet and his famous orchestra at the Obio theatre on Monday. The popular saxophone player will put on shows at 2, 4:30, 7:10 and 9:40 p.m. On the screen will be "Get Going," with Robert Paige and Grace McDonald.

Opening Tuesday at the Lyric will be a picture packed with music and comedy, entitled, "Hi, Neighbor," starring

Jean Parker and John Archer. Also scheduled to open is "queen of Broadway," in which little Donald Mayo and pretty Rochelle Hudson have two big roles.

Currently at the Sigma 'Reap the "ild Wind," actionpacked drama starring Raymond Massey, Ray Milland, John Wayne and Paulette Goddard. The Sigma also is presenting a comedy, Chickens," in which Noah Berry, Jr., has a leading part.

At the State is "Slightly Dangerous," an amusing picture from start till finish. Robert Young has a hard time finding out how he stands with lovely Lana Turner but as the picture ends he finds out that he is tops, "Sherlock Holmes in Washington," the cofeature, deals with the famous sleuth solving a murder of an Englishman.

All who saw the two hits, "Chatterbox," and "In Old Califorma," at the Quilna over the week-end were well pleased. Joe E. Brown, Judy Canova, Rosemary Lane, John Hubbard, John Wayne, Binnie Baines and Albert Dekker are just a few of the big Hollywood players who have roles in these hits.

The Drive In theatre currently is presenting "Once Upon a with Ginger Rogers Honeymoon." and Cary Grant. Monday will be the final day for the showing of but he's simply "Duke" to his nation Unknown," at the Majes-
