

Raymond Walburn To Guest On Music Hall Broadcast

"Should All Japanese Continue To Be Excluded From The West Coast For The Duration?" To Be Discussed

Raymond Walburn, currently seen in the local cinema houses playing the role of Dorothy Lamour's father in Bing Crosby's latest effort "Dixie," will be featured guest when the Music Hall convenes again on Thursday at 9 p. m. (EWT) over WEAF. Sharing the guest role with the veteran stage and screen actor will be Cliff Nazarro, the double-talk expert who may have a little difficulty in interpreting some of Bing's seven syllable words.

"Should All Japanese Continue to Be Excluded from the West Coast for the Duration?" will be the timely topic of discussion on the "America's Town Meeting of the Air" broadcast over WJZ on Thursday, at 8:30 p. m., EWT.

A plaque will be presented to Bert Lytell, emcee of "Stage Door Canteen" over WAIC Thursday, at 9:30 p. m., EWT, designating that program "the favorite U. S. O. program." The official recognition came thru a poll conducted by "Movie-Radio Guide" and making the presentation will be Ruth Bizzell, editor of the publication.

Two fanfares, two Waring-Dolph hits, new lyrics to the official West Point March, a salute to the WACS and two immortals by Sousa—all these will be heard on the second program in the "Music at War" series Thursday, (WEAF, 11:30 p. m., EWT), titled "The Army."

TIGER TAMING LADY WITH CIRCUS

Slight and winsome, Mrs. Harriett Beatty proves she has unlimited supplies of "nerve" when she faces two natural jungle enemies, the temperamental elephant and the vicious tiger, at the same time. This lady tiger posing with her is no lady if you don't watch her, says Mrs. Beatty—remember, she's nothing but a jungle beast waiting for a chance to kill.

STAR AFRAID POINT BOOKS TWICE DAILY NEWCOMER IN BAND CIRCLES

Mrs. Clyde Beatty Admits Fear, But Has Courage To Face Wild Beasts

She may be afraid, but she still faces beasts—you can have courage and still be afraid at the same time. If you doubt it, ask Mrs. Clyde Beatty, wife of the world famous wild animal trainer, coming to Lima, next Monday, July 19, with the Clyde Beatty-Wallace Bros. circus.

She has to have plenty of courage in order to face these two beasts twice daily. "Sure I'm afraid," says the very pretty, very blond and very polite Mrs. Beatty, but I just have to make the best of it.

Her famous husband, Clyde, is still unchallenged as king of all wild animal trainers and this season is presenting a new sensational display. Following these two presentations more than 150 sawdust stars constantly fill the three rings, air and track—thrill after thrill by troupe after troupe—three herds of performing elephants, highly trained thoroughbred horses and other domestic animals combine to present the old time American circus program.

Tickets (reserved and general admission) go on sale Monday, 9 a. m. to 1 p. m. at Poulston's drug store. Enlisted service men in uniform will be given reduced prices including federal tax. Performances start at 2:30 and 8 p. m., with doors open 1 and 7. ILLINOIS RICH IN COAL. It is estimated that, despite more than half a century of extensive mining operations, not more than one-fifth of the coal reserves of Illinois have been tapped to date.

Galaxy Of Hit Tunes Heard In Quilna's "Coney Island"

Technicolor Attraction Starts Thursday, Featuring Betty Grable, Cesar Romero, George Montgomery

"Coney Island," new technicolor musical picture commencing Thursday at the Quilna contains a veritable fountain of hit tunes by the ace composing team of Leo Robin and Ralph Rainger. Included are "Take it From There," "Beautiful Coney Island," "Miss Lulu From Louisville," and "There's Danger in a Dance." Betty Grable, Cesar Romero and George Montgomery have the principal roles.

Lilting melodies mingle with comedy and a haunting love story in "Presenting Lily Mars," due Friday at the Ohio theatre. In this production, Judy Garland has one of the most intriguing roles of her career and she shares honors with Van Heflin. Ending Friday at the Ohio will be "China," with Loretta Young and Alan Ladd.

Currently showing at the Sigma is "Two Tickets to London," action-packed picture with Alan Curtis, Michele Morgan and C. Aubrey Smith. Also presented at the Sigma is a swell western picture, "The Avenging Rider," starring young Tim Holt.

A clever scheme to divert police attention from a gang of bond thieves forms the basis of the Falcon Strikes Back, current State hit. Tom Conway, Harriett Hilliard and Jane Randolph are featured. In the co-feature, "Night Plane From Chungking," Robert Preston and Ellen Drew are starred.

Commencing Friday at the Drive In theatre will be "Bambi," a Walt Disney feature filmed in technicolor, and "McGuerrons From Brooklyn," with Max Baer and William Bendis. Thursday will be the last day for the showing of "Mayor of 44th Street."

Lynne Roberts and George Holmes find troubles in the mystery comedy, "The Man in the Trunk," which will show thru Saturday at the Lyric. Completing the Lyric program is "Frontier Scout," a fast-moving western drama.

Audiences will leave the Ohio theatre whistling and humming some of the haunting song numbers with which Judy Garland charms in "Presenting Lily Mars," ending Friday. Miss Garland is seen in a story really new for her and is teamed with Van Heflin, a fine he was a bit skeptical and brought Cregar to the set. After assembling members of the cast, Lynne Roberts, Raymond Walburn, J. Carroll Nash and Dorothy Peterson, Morosco challenged Holmes to lift Cregar. Holmes did—with ease!

"The Man in the Trunk," new mystery comedy, is at the Lyric theatre. The film was directed by Malcolm St. Clair from an original screenplay by John Larkin.

Stars, songs, dances, romance packaged in a rollicking mirth-provoking story—all the ingredients of a hit show—best describes the Technicolor musical, "Coney Island," which opens Thursday at the Quilna theatre.

Betty Grable, George Montgomery and Cesar Romero carry off top, starring honors in this colorful, time-filled story of life behind the scenes at America's famed seashore resort.

Betty plays the part of a captivating cafe entertainer—the town toast of Coney's sun-drenched boardwalk. In her role the curvaceous star sings, dances and has plenty of opportunity to show off to advantage the famous legs and figure that helped her rise to box-office championship. Montgomery and Romero are cast as a charming pair of twinning, double-crossing, side show operators, who carry on a friendly but knock-down, drag-out battle for the fair Betty's affections. The picture features Charles Winninger and Phil Silvers at the top of a strong featured cast.
