

"Midsummer Night's Dream" To Be Aired Friday Night

Bill Stern May Talk Curves But Not Of The Baseball Variety When Ilona Massey Visits His Program

Refusing $10,000 for a novel murder assignment, Nick Charles, radio's super sleuth, out-smarts a gang who murder for even greater profit in "Midsummer Night's Dream," the thrill-packed chapter of "The Adventures of the Thin Man," for Friday, over WABC at 8:30 p. m. (EWT).

Curves, tho not the baseball variety, enhance Bill Stern's "Sports Newsreel" Friday (WEAF, 10:30 p. m. EWT), when Ilona Massey, radio, stage and screen star, appears as guest.

It will be a blue Friday indeed when Lulu Bates, buxom blues singer of WJZ, offers her feature selection on Friday, at 10:15 p. m. EWT, on the "Lulu and Johnny" program.

Chicagoans will have their first opportunity to witness a broadcast of "Meet Your Navy" on Friday, when in special celebration to Meet Your Navy Day in the lakefront metropolis, the all-bluejacket WJZ program will originate before an audience of 20,000 in the Chicago Stadium.

One of the season's most popular songs, "Oklahoma," from the musical of the same name, has been specially arranged for Lucille Manners, Ross Graham, and the chorus and orchestra under the direction of Frank Black for Friday (WEAF, 8 p. m. EWT).

The incredible case of the "Kiss of Death" a fantastic curse which followed all those under the spell of the evil mobster leading the John Dean gang, will be dramatized on the "Gang Busters" program over WJZ on Friday, at 9 p. m. EWT. Based on

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

Mr. L. S. Galvin, Lima News Publishing Co. Dear Sir:

Would like you to know how very much I enjoy reading "Adams Daily Talk" on your editorial page. I'm sure it is inspiring and encouraging to many others also.

Then tucked away down in the lower left-hand corner of the same page is that little gem "A Thought." I hope these will continue to appear because I believe they are invaluable contributions. Thank you for the church news featured weekly. It is helpful in many ways. I'm positive that I speak for many others when I ask you to please accept my sincere appreciation for these splendid Christ-honoring items published in The Lima News. Very truly yours, MRS. GLEN C. SUTTON, 1276 Feeman-av, Lima, O.

WOMEN TRAIN CALLERS APPEAR IN N. Y. CITY

NEW YORK, July 30—(INS)—Harried travelers passing thru New York's Pennsylvania station thought their senses had finally gone today when they heard trains being called by clear, sweet—mistakenly—feminine voices. But when they got to the gate and found a female usher they decided it must be true.

YOUTH FOUND INNOCENT OF RECKLESS DRIVING

An 18-year-old youth, Robert Fickle, of Continental, was found not guilty in Municipal court Thursday of a charge of reckless driving. The Putnam-co boy was arrested after his automobile and one operated by William Stephens, 45, of Ada Route 1, were involved in an accident at S. Central-av and Elm-st at 12:38 a. m. Tuesday.

JUDGMENT OF $75 AWARDED TO PLAINTIFF

In municipal court Thursday, The Airport Red Top Cab Inc. was ordered by Judge Moran B. Jenkins to pay judgment of $75 to P. B. Barnum, colored, of 117 E. Second-st. Barnum had asked judgment of $800 as the result of injuries he alleged were received in a fight with one of the taxi employes, Charles Bradford. Barnum alleged that on July 22, 1942, he ordered a cab and after riding a short distance, the driver was forced to stop for a train in South Lima. The plaintiff claimed he offered to pay the driver 25 cents fare but the driver demanded 75 cents. An argument started and Barnum pointed out in his petition that Bradford struck him, causing numerous bruises about the face and body. He further alleged that his glasses were broken as was his watch.

CHURCH CIRCUIT HOLDS ANNUAL PICNIC SUNDAY

Worship services will be combined with the annual picnic of the Unioopolis Metho'dist circuit and will be held Sunday at the shelter house at City park. Rev. Ellsworth Abel Solah Allen, pastor, announces. The circuit includes Bethel, Poplar Hill, and Unopolis churches. The pastor's sermon theme is "Slips that Pass in the Night." An evening worship and communion service will be held at 8 p. m. at the Bethel church, when the minister will preach on "A Blood Relationship."
