ANNE SHIRLEY IS HEROINE IN "BOMBARDIER," AT THE SIGMA

Don Ameche And Gene Tierney Appeal To Many In "Heaven Can Wait," Showing

At Quilna

Anne Shirley, whose popularity grows each time she appears on the screen, is the heroine of the spectacular air force drama, "Bombardier," Sigma hit, which co-stars Pat O'Brien and Randolph Scott as a pair of Army fliers. Also on the new program is the thrilling story the weaker sex, "Girls in Chains."

The hundreds of Lima and area persons who saw "Heaven Can Wait," at the Quilna preview Friday night, termed it one of the best pictures to show in Lima in recent weeks. Starring Don Ameche and Gene Tierney, it is a spicy, saucy comedy of the gay Nineties and what made them

A picture which packs all the music and romance that you could ask for is "Divie," currently at the Ohio. The super-special musical about the good old South in minstrel days will show thru next Thursday, Bing Crosby, Dorothy Lamour, Lynne Overman and Marjoric Reynolds are in the cast.

"Spy Train," thrilling drama of waitime intrigue, opens at the Lyric Saturday midnight with a featured cast which includes Richand Travis and Catherine Craig. Hoot Gibson, famous hero of the sagebrush, has another great role in "The Law Rides Again," which will be the co-feature.

One of the finest pictures ever to show in Lima, "Shepherd of the Hills," returns Sunday and will theatre on the S. Dixie-hy, Principal roles are taken by John Wayne and Betty Fields. Ending Saturday will be "Silver Queen." Saturday will be the final day
