YOUTH HAD LOT OF FUN POSING AS LIEUTENANT

CLEVELAND, Aug. 24 (INS) — Soldiers stationed in Cleveland got wise to their superior officer after they grew tired of saluting him.

A 15-year-old boy, impersonating a lieutenant in the air corps, was held in juvenile detention home today when some of the enlisted men wondered why the officer never grew a beard.

The youth had purchased the uniform at a downtown store and had been staying with an unsuspecting soldier home on furlough in East Cleveland.

He had kept soldiers saluting since Thursday. A special broadcast in observance of the birthday of Bernardo O'Higgins, Chilean patriot, will be presented over WJZ Tuesday.
