

Irving Berlin's Great Show Opens At Ohio On Thursday

Full House Predicted For Gala Premiere Of "This Is The Army," With George Murphy And Joan Leslie

The Hollywood production that everyone has been waiting for, "This Is The Army," opens Thursday night at the Ohio with a gala reserved seat premier scheduled for 8:30 p. m.

Torrid, tempting, tantalizing Jinx Falkenberg is co-starring with zany Joan Davis in the madcap musical, "Two Senoritas From Chicago," which will open Friday night at the Quilna.

Currently playing at the Lyric is "In Old California," a swell western picture featuring John Wayne, Bonnie Baines and Albert Dekker.

A superb ice spectacle, "Silver Skates," now is showing at the State. Leading roles are taken by Kenny Baker and Patricia Morrison.

Attracting patrons to the Sigma is "Bombardier," a story about three men wearing silver wings and a girl with a golden heart.

Commencing Friday at the Drive in will be "Taxi Mister," with William Benday and Grace Bradley, and "Jacare," a thrilling aerial feature.

Irving Berlin's "This Is The Army," which successfully stormed city after city in its original stage version, will show at the Ohio Thursday night.

The production for Army Emergency Relief uses all 350 of the original cast plus heavy-duty champion Sgt. Joe Louis.

Hollywood is richly represented by, among others, George Murphy, Joan Leslie, Lt. Ronald Reagan, George Tobias, Alan Hale, Charles Butterworth and Una Merkel.

Rodno's great star, Kate Smith, sings the beloved hymn, "God Bless America," which she introduced to the nation over the air waves.

A screen story was built around the show, linking together the generations of the two world wars and giving the production a plot interest which the stage version lacked.

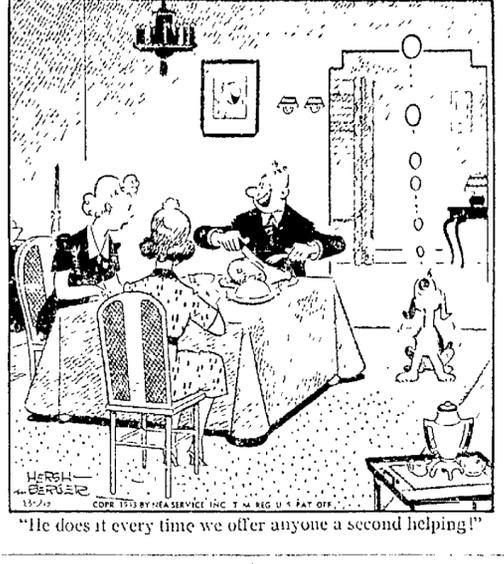

Based upon a screen play by Casey Robinson and Capt. Claude Junyon, Irving Berlin's "This Is The Army" was directed by Michael Curtiz who directed "Yankee Doodle Dandy," "Casablanca," "Mission to Moscow" and other outstanding motion pictures.

A glittering panorama of song, music and fun is presented currently at the Lyric theatre in "The Hit Parade of 1943."

With Susan Hayward and John Carroll heading the cast, the story moves at a rapid and gay pace from one engaging situation to another.

The picture is studied with star names from the entertainment world, Freddy Martin and his band, and Count Basie and his orchestra provide musical highlights, along
