

Thin Man Solves Murder Of Handsome Crooner On Friday

Isham Jones Hit Tunes Will Be Presented On Dr. Frank Black Program; Juveniles on Gang Busters Program

With only one flimsy clue to the murder of a handsome swooner-crooner, Nick Charles applies real "Hawkshaw" strategy in solving "The Case of the Crooner Who Croaked" this Friday's brain-teasing episode of "The Adventures of the Thin Man," over WABC at 8:30 p. m. when a nationally famous entertainer, whose career was financed by a crowd of gangsters, is shot to death, Detective Charles quickly realizes that he has a man-size job on his hands.

One conductor pays tribute to another bandleader when Dr. Frank Black and his orchestra present a medley of tunes by Isham Jones as a highlight of their concert program over WEAP at 8 p. m. Friday. Tunes are "Indiana Moon," "Swinging Down the Lane," "Spain," "On the Alamo," "I'll See You in My Dreams" and "Wooden Soldier and the China Doll."

sees the day when Mickey Rooney will be known as the poor man's "Richard Parker," as "Richard Sees Stars," in the latest comic adventure of "The Parker Family," on Friday, at 8:15 p. m., over station WJZ. Having considerable experience in the theatre (a walk-on in a high school play), Richard feels that he is a natural for first prize in a movie studio's quest for the typical American boy. Things don't work out quite according to plan, but there is many a laugh along the way. Michael O'Day is heard as Richard, with Marjorie Anderson and Jay Jostyn as his parents, Mitzu Gould as his sister Nancy and Bill Quinn as his chum, Fatso.

The familiar, ear-caressing arrangements of Raymond Pague's orchestra, heard Monday thru Friday afternoons on the "Songs by Morton Downey" series, will be featured on the "Victory Parade of Spotlight Bands" broadcast at 9:30 p. m. Friday, over WJZ. "Gang Busters," the dramatic program of factual case histories, will show how one of America's leading cities helped solve one of the most pressing current problems—juvenile delinquency—when the broadcast is heard at 9 p. m. Friday over WJZ. The program will feature the story of a young girl and a gunman, a strange Halloween masquerade which ended in murder, and the secrets of the cigar box periscope and the steel lined gloves.

The non-rigid aulship, the blimp has been found ideal in the training of Marine patrolboats as slow cruising speed provides an excellent "springboard."

16 NEW OCCUPANTS OF HOUSE PROVE TOO MANY

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Aug. 27.—(UP)—Carl E. Bennett didn't object when two of his children by a previous marriage came to live with them. He didn't object much when she asked others to move in too. And he grumbled only mildly when the total reached 16, counting grandchildren.

But when his wages were garnished for bills incurred by his proxy offspring and he was evicted by his landlord his endurance reached its limit. "Enough is enough," he said, and sued for divorce.

When using the automobile in warm weather, the carburetor accelerating pump should be adjusted to a shorter stroke to give a leaner mixture than is needed in cold weather.
