

Irving Berlin's Army Show Held Over For Second Time

Technicolor Hit Will Remain At Sigma Thru Friday; Boston Blackie Film On Screen At The Lyric

Irving Berlin's musical soldier picture, "This is the Army," has thrilled Lima so, that it again has been held over at the Sigma this time thru Friday.

A western and a mystery picture will flash on the screen at the Lyric commencing Thursday.

The thrill packed hits are "After Midnight With Boston Blackie" and "Six Gun Gospel." Ending Wednesday will be "Secrets of a Co-ed" and "That Other Woman."

Showing thru Thursday at the Drive in will be "Silver Skates," with Patricia Morrison and Kenny Baker.

Importance of aerial gunners in flying warfare will be shown in "Aerial Gunners," which comes to the State Thursday with Richard Arlen and Chester Morris in the lead roles.

Nearing the close of a run at the Quilna are "Bomber's Moon," and Red Head From Manhattan.

The first picture features George Montgomery and lovely Annabella and deals with actual warfare. The second hit, a rollicking comedy, stars Lupe Velez.

"Behind the Rising Sun," a story dealing with the Japanese, will begin Friday at the Ohio. Wednesday and Thursday will be the final days for the showing of "Watch on the Rhine," starring Betty Davis and Paul Lukas.

George Montgomery and Annabella are costarred in the thrilling new film "Bomber's Moon," which is currently showing at the Quilna theatre.

"Redhead from Manhattan," tuncful romantic comedy featuring Lupe Velez in the leading role, is ending its Quilna theatre run on Friday.

Romance, treachery and thrills are blended to make exciting film fare in "Behind the Rising Sun," vivid expose of the secret Japanese ambitions that lay behind the attack on Pearl Harbor.

Weaving absorbing human drama against its graphic background of the Jap war lords and their plans, the RKO Radio picture features a cast headed by Margo, Tom Neal, J. Carroll Nash, Robert Ryan and Gloria Holden.

Opening on Thursday at the Lyric theatre, "After Midnight with Boston Blackie" promises thrills for all action fans when air raid sirens shriek . . . as bullets scream . . . and the most lovable of rogues traps the most desperate of killers.

Chester Morris once more is to be seen in the title role, while others of the cast who return in their familiar roles include: Geo. E. Stone, Richard Lane, Walter Sande and Lloyd Corrigan.

Working overtime in an effort to insure every eligible Ohio resident his war ration book No. 5 by Monday, the date it goes into effect, Byron L. Harter, chief of the center, reported.
