

U. S. Chamber Of Commerce Head To Appear On Air Friday

Eric Johnston, president of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, who recently returned from London and a tour of the west, will be heard in a talk over WEAF Friday (10:45 p. m., EWT). His topic will be, "An Anglo-American Peace Policy."

When Nick breaks his toe and a killer tries to make mince-meat out of Nora, it adds up to "The Case of the Glamorous Gams," this week's walloping episode of "The Adventures of the Thin Man." (WABC 8:30 p. m., EWT).

With his father and those two "minds," Fatso and Jeop, as his campaign managers, Richard runs

PUTNAM GIRLS ENTER CONTEST

Will Represent County In District Elimination

(Lima News Bureau)

OTTAWA, Sept. 21—Five Putnam-co girls will represent this county in the 4-II district elimination contest Saturday at Napoleon, it was announced Friday by County Agent L. C. Holtkamp.

The representatives follow: Genevieve Schumacher of Pandota in the complete costume division; Myronie Otto of Belmore, dress review; Patricia Miehls of Ft. Jennings, individual demonstration; and Alice Lentz and Judy Aebhoff of Columbus Grove, team demonstration.

These girls were chosen as a result of the judging of girls' 1-11 club projects in advance of the 1917 Putnam-co fair which will be held here Oct. 5-9.

Announcement also was made by the agent that the fourth annual livestock sale will be held during the junior fair program of the annual exposition at 6 p. m. Thursday, Oct. 7, at the dairy barn on the fairgrounds.

Low Ryan will be here to auction the livestock which has been raised during the last year by boys and girls in the county.

HELD FOR EVADNIG DRAFT

AKRON, Sept. 21—(AP)—A hunky, 23-year-old native of West Virginia who said he did not know of the requirement to register for selective service was in the Summit-co jail today. Deputy Sheriff Sam Keene quoted him as saying he had been working on a farm near Huntington, W. Va., and didn't know anything about the draft. He said he drifted into Akron because he "got tired of cutting corn."

Keene said the young man couldn't read or write.

The body of the tiny chorus frog is translucent.

AWARDED SILVER STAR

(Lima News Bureau)

John O. has been awarded the Silver Star for service with the U. S. 1st Air Force, U. S. 1st Air Force.
