

THRILLS, MUSIC AND COMEDY OFFERED ON LIMA SCREENS

ANN SOTHERN GOES TO WORK IN WAR PLANT AT THE SIGMA

Ann "Maisie" Sothern goes to work in a war plant in "Swing Shift Maisie," currently playing at the Sigma. Also showing is "Sherlock Holmes Faces Death," thrill-packed hit.

The Drive In will offer "Hit Parade of 1943," with John Carroll and Susan Hayward, beginning Sunday. "Fall In" and "That Other Woman" show thru Saturday.

Showing Saturday midnight at the Lyric will be two thrilling pictures, "Undercover Man," and "The Devil With Hitler." It also will show Sunday.

Presented at the Majestic are "Hi Neighbor" with Jean Parker and John Archer, and "Flight for Freedom," a story about a woman flier.

A mighty sea story is "The Destroyer," currently offered at the Quilna. Edward G. Robinson, Glenn Ford and Marguerite Chapman have lead roles in this spectacular drama.

If you're hunting a picture with stars, romance and music go to the Ohio to see "Thank Your Lucky Stars." Humphrey Bogart, Eddie Cantor, Erol Flynn and Joan Leslie are just a few of the big stars.

Showing thru Saturday at the State are "Salute for Thrice," and "Captive Wild Woman."

EDDIE ROBINSON SETS A RECORD

Edward G. Robinson qualified for the Long Screen Speeches Club when he spoke continuously for four minutes and 40 seconds in a scene in "Destroyer," the stirring drama now playing at the Quilna theatre, with Marguerite Chapman, Glenn Ford and Edgar Buchanan featured in support of Robinson, who is the star of the picture.

The scene is one in which Robinson tells a group of sailors, including Ford and Buchanan, the tradition of the USS John Paul Jones, a destroyer. When he got thru there were tears in the eyes of the players and production staff. That's being an actor! And he put it over in one take.

MOVIE FILMED IN A FACTORY

Jean Rogers, lovable daughter in "The War Against Mr. Hadley," changes her character to a crisp, dapper plotter in "Swing Shift Maisie," Ann Sothern's latest adventure as the glamorous showgirl at the Sigma theatre. As Miss Sothern's love rival she has her accused of sabotage, but in the end Ann wins the romantic test pilot, played by James Craig.

The story opens with Maisie in tight and spangles in vaudeville, but she soon dons overalls as a worker on an airplane assembly line. Her men's part in war work is graphically shown amid comical episodes and dramatic moments.

Much of the background was actually filmed in a great Western plane factory.

"Sherlock Holmes Faces Death" also shows.

SEVEN SHAKEN IN COLLISION

One person received lacerations and six others were shaken up late Friday when two automobiles collided head-on at a bridge three miles east of Westminister in Route 117, state highway patrolmen reported.

Injured and treated at Memorial hospital was Goldie Howard, Harrod Route 1, who sustained head and right hand lacerations.

Patrolmen said the mishap involved cars operated by Jack Blaine Parlette, 16, of 1321 S. Central-av, and Betty Neely, 22, of Lakeview Route 1.

The injured woman was a passenger in the car operated by Miss Neely. Also in the same car was Hester Prater, Route 1, Harrod, and the three were on their way home from work at The Lima Woolen Mills Co.

In the car driven by Parlette were Ivan Harzog and Louise Harzog, both of 1803 Norval-av, and June Parlette, 14, S. Central-av.

The mishap, which occurred about 11 p. m., caused heavy damage to both vehicles, patrolmen said.

Patrolmen investigated a mishap at 12.05 a. m. Saturday near The Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Co. plant on the S. Dixie-by.

Cars involved were operated by Victor Crawford, 25, of 325 Calimet-av, and John G. Jones, 15, of 414 Lake-st. No one was injured.

TIRE COMPANY'S STORAGE ROOM IS BROKEN INTO

George D. Hitler, 1608 Rice-av, manager of the Firestone Tire and Rubber Co. store, High and McDonel-sts, told police the storage room at the rear of his establishment was broken into Friday.

Officers said a bag had been removed from the door, but that nothing was discovered missing.

Clarence Randall, 260 S. Pine-st, reported that vandals broke a concrete flower pot on his front porch Friday during the night.

He also told police that a mail box had been moved from the northwest corner of Eureka and Pine-sts to the southwest corner. It was later returned to the northwest corner.

CHILD IS KILLED

(UP) — Joyce Carter, 12, was killed last night when a .22 calibre rifle held by Patty Valentine, 19, discharged accidentally. A verdict of accidental death was returned. Joyce, daughter of Sgt. and Mrs. John Carter, was spending the night with Patty.

LYRIC STARS—Donald Barry and Dale Evans are seen in "The West Side Kid," Lyric attraction.

JEEP TURNS SWITCH ENGINE—There's apparently nothing a jeep can't do. Down in Australia they've turned the versatile vehicle into a switch engine by substituting steel wheels for its regular rollers. Here the switch buggy hooks on to a long line of freight cars.

GERONIMO WITH WOOF WOOF—Man and beast get set for a jump as American airborne troops demonstrate their battle technique at Alliance, Neb. air base. Here Geronimo, shepherd dog named for parachutists' famed cry, looks before leaping with his pack of first aid supplies and Red Cross blanket.
