Kaiser Hospital Ends First Year

RICHMOND, Calif. — (U.P.) Henry J. Kaiser's controversial non-profit health program for the care of his 70,000 Richmond ship-yard workers ended its first year Monday with a record of 838 major operations and 4,632 minor operations performed.

Participation in the program is voluntary, and each employe who subscribes pays 50 cents per week from his paycheck for unlimited medical and hospital care. Critics have called the plan an experiment in "mass production medi-
