WAPAK GIRL TO LEARN TO FLY BOMBING PLANE

FIELD, Kas., Oct. 18-The first contingent of Texas tanned women pilots, wearing the silver wings of the 318th Army Air Forces Flying Training Detachment, today arrived at the Dodge City Army Air Field to train to fly the B-26 Marauder, world's fastest and hardest hitting medium bomber. The women, ranging from the wife of an Army Air Forces major to a coed who left college last April to turn aviatrix, are civilians with a special civil service rating which enables them to receive a strenuous nine-week course here similar to the instruction given Army Air Forces pilots here. They were awarded their wings

Saturday at Avenger Field, Sweetwater. Tex., after completing primary, basic and advanced instruction during which they amassed a minimum of 180 hours of flying time. Included in the group is Carol

Webb, who formerly was employed in Dayton by the Air Service Command as a secretary. She has a brother who is serving overseas with the armed forces. Miss Webb is the daughter of

Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Webb. Wapakoneta, O.

SAFETY PIN HAS OTHER USE THAN

MATHEWS - West Barnnoton, R.I.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 18 -(UP)-Ninc-year-old Cecil Baxter didn't have a gleaming sword when he went to rescue a fair young lady, so he used-a safety pin.

Cecil and his eight-year-old friend, Earl Lingo, were playing in front of Earl's house when three older boys started to drag a six-year-old girl from her north down the street.

Outnumbered but undaunted. Cccil and Earl charged to the rescue of their playmate. They soon were overpowered by two of the old boys, but Cecil remembered a safety pin in the proket of his jeans.

"It riled me plenty." Cecil said. "So I just took out my pin and jabbed away." Then he yelled, and the older boys fled.

HUFFMAN LOOMS AS CANDIDATE IN GOVERNOR RACE

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 18-(AP) - Virtual certainty that James W. Huffman, son-in-law of former Governor and U. S. Senator Vic Donahey will enter the Democratic gubernational race has the old anti-Donahey group beating the tall grass for some one to oppose And there are those high in Democratic circles who say Huffman will be handed the nomination, possibly without formidable opposition. One of the most likely candidates of the anti-Donahey and strict organization group is former Treasurer Clarence H. Knisley, who was a poor third in the fivecornered gubernational primary race last year. In that race the organization boys mostly supported Walter F. Heer of Columbus, an avowed organization man.
