Gary Cooper, Frances Dec and George Raft head the big cast in the gripping saga of the sea, "Souls at Sea," which opens Wednesday at the Sigma. On the bill also will be "Amazing Adventure," with Adventure and romance run neck and neck in "The Adventure of Tartu," new attraction at the Ohio. The war drama features Rebert Donat, Valerie Hobson and Walter Rilla. Set against the background of the snow-capped mountains of Canada, "Wintertime," at the Quilna, is a tuneful comedy that has plenty of laughs, pretty girls and litting songs. Gene Autry, for the first time in many pictures, engages in five fist fights in "Bells of Capistrano," Lyric hit. The story is built against a lavish rodco, wild west show background. "Shantytown" also shows.

"Hit the Ice," funniest hit ever made by Abbott and Costello, now is at the State. The comedians capture some bank robbers at a resort, "Honeymoon Lodge," also

"The Immortal Sergeant," with Henry Fonda and Maureen O'Hara, shows thru Tuesday at the Drive In.
