

Secretary Knox Will Report To Nation On March Of Time

Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox, just returned from a tour of the European battlefronts, will give his first "in person" report to the nation on the March of Time on Thursday at 9:30 over WEAF. Knox, who watched the shelling of Naples from an American destroyer and also visited England and North Africa where he conferred with Allied leaders, will bring listeners a full account of what he saw.

Paul Lukas, who faced countless terrors in "Watch On The Rhine," will really learn about the horrors of life when he faces Joan Davis on the Joan Davis-Jack Haley show Thursday over WEAF at 8:30 p. m., EST.

Dick Haymes featured number on the "Here's To Romance" program, with Ray Bloch's orchestra, over WABC Thursday at 9:30 p. m., EST, will be "People Will Say We're In Love"—hit tune from "Oklahoma."

Cass Daley, the Hollywood comedienne who can go into more facial contortions than the rubber-faced man at the side-show, will drop in on her good friend Bing Crosby Thursday night, at 8 p. m., EST over WFAP.

Saluting the gallantry of American airmen, some of the best creative talent of the U. S. Army has contributed to a broadcast to be heard on the "Wings of Victory" hour over WJZ Thursday at 6 p. m., EST.

Henry Aldrich unintentionally starts a run on alarm clocks that do not exist in Centerville's depleted parts in "The Aldrich Family" over WEAF on Thursday at 7:30 p. m., EST.

Jimmy Durante, the man with the anteater profile, and Garry Moore, the man with the putting-green scalp, get together for another of their twice weekly acts.
