Mother Love Is Theme Of Newest Feature At Quilna

"Someone to Remember," currently playing at the Quilia features mother love as its theme. It is decidedly different in tone from the usual type of picture. "Sleepy Lagoon." starring Judy Canova, is the other half of the double bill.

Pat O'Brien and George Raft take the male leads in "Breadway," now showing at the Sigma. It is a story of New York during "the rearing '20s." "The Black Cat." suggested by Edgar Allen Poc's undying tale, also is appearing.

"Dixio" and "Henry Aldrich Swings It" form the highly entertaining fare at the State just now, "Dixie," in technicolor has Bing Croshy and lovely Dorothy Lamour in the top billing, Everyone knows about the escapades of Henry Aldrich and is taking advantage of this picture to become better acquainted with him.

You are afforded a lot of luxury of laughter in "Life Begins at 8:30," starring Ida Lupino and Monty Woolley but "Scarface" is more serious-it deals with gangland. Both new are playing at the Lyric.

"Jehnny Doughboy," playing at the Drive In is a strong and colerful story of our soldiers. Everyone likes it.

The scene of "Best Foot Forward." current billing at the Ohio. centers around a movie star who accepts an invitation to a college prom. Lots of fun before it is all **‡ $ $
