State Defends Iowa College

IOWA CITY, Ia. — (U.P.) — The state board of education declared that the charge of violation of the fundamentals of academic free-dom at Iowa State college "In all particulars is without foundation and fact."

Henry Shull, Sioux City, board president, said that the board had reached this conclusion "after a thorough and intensive consideration of the whole situation." The board's statement followed refusal of representatives of the Iowa Farmers union to submit evidence to support their charge that academic freedom at the school is being abridged by pressure groups. Donald Van Vleet, president of the Farmers union, explained his eral chairman, reported $728, top-refusal to submit evidence on the ping the $575 quota for the village grounds that the board of educa-
