Radio Chiefs Meet | Shostakovitch with Petrillo

NEW YORK -(U.P.)- The heads of two major radio chains have entered the "canned music" controversy be-tween the broacasters and James C. Petrillo, president of the American Federation of Musicians, in an effort to settle it.

The executives, David Sarnoff, president of the Radio Corp. of American, and William S. Paley, president of the Columbia Broadcasting system, met with Petrillo at his office Friday in what all described as a "friendly meet-Sarnoff said they discussed their mutual problems and believed "that progress is being made.

"We have arrived at no agreement as yet, except that we have agreed to meet again and continue our discussions some time next week. We are trying to find a solution rather than a battle," he added.

Petrillo said the radio executives "are doing their best to try to meet the situation," adding:

"There was no belligerent attitude. They are all right, They have their problems, just as we have."

Piece Premiered

MOSCOW - (U.P.) - The world premiere of Dimitri Shostakovitch's "Eighth Symphony" was presented to a distinguished and enthusiastic audience at the Moscow conservatory Thursday night by the State Symphony orchestra conducted by Eugeni Mravinski.

The composition and the conductor, who is Russia's foremost, were given an ovation. In the audience were musicians, artists, writers, actors, and representatives of the diplomatic world, including Maxim Litvinov and Ivan Maisky.

The symphony is in five movements-an adagio, two marches, a passacaglia and a "pastoral." Like the famous Seventh or "War" symphony, it is vigorous in expression. Sharp dissonances are used and remarkable fortissimos in the climaxes.
