Nazi-Held France And Small U. S. Town Are Film Locales

Two interesting pictures will get under way Wednesday at the Sigma theatre when "The Good Fellows" and "Somewhere in France" start. The former is an hilarious film depicting the activities of a small town lodge and its members. The trip of a girl thru Nazi-held France furnishes thrills for the other feature.

"Watch on the Rhine" with the famed Betty Davis and "Saludos Amigos," a Disney animated picture dealing with South America are attractions appearing at the State theatre.

Bob Hope and Betty Hulton are at their best in "Let's Face It." the Obio theatre's current feature. There are laughs aplenty in this vehicle of super entertainment.

"Paris After Dark" is an international spy film with attending thrills. Also playing in a double bill at the Quilna is "Week-End in Havana," with music and fun.

Currently playing at the Sigma are "Fallen Sparrow" and "Hi Ya Sailor."
