OUR BOARDING HOUSE with MAJOR HOOPLE OUT OUR WAY Comedy And Suspense Abound In Ohio's Merry Film Tale

Comedy and suspense play a large part in "Princess O'Rourke" now showing at the Ohio. With Olivia DeHavilland as a royal princess and Robert Cummings as her much harassed American boy friend, the movie is a Cinderella story in reverse. After much interference from the state department and the princess' uncle, the couple finally reach their happy ending with the aid of the President. This is one of the few recent pictures that illustrates the complications of international relations without having the weighty feeling of a war

"Fired Wife" and "Trail of Terror" open Wednesday at the Sigma. Today is the last day for Crime School" and "Girls on Probation."

On the twin billing at the Quilna are "The Unknown Guest" and "Fielody Parade."

The State offers "Salute to the Marines" in technicolor with "Spitfire's Blessed Event" as a co-feature.

"Good Luck Mr. Yates" and "No Escape" are now the double feature offering at the Lyric.

LYRIC

A forcefully entertaining picture is the melodrama, "No Escape." at the Lyric theatre. It is a thrilling film which holds the attention and interest of the audience thruout its length, and is an outstanding example of the present-day action

Contributing greatly to the success of the picture is a cast which Guest' is also featured. is exceptionally able, and does full justice to every scene. The featured UNDERGROUND IN roles are played by Dean Jagger, and who literally "sink their teeth" into a trio of roles for which they are admirably suited. Others who do outstanding work are Bill Henry, Ian Keith and Sidney Black-

With tensely dramatic situations interspersed with forceful and swiftly paced movements, the plot of genuine excitement as a criminal band engages in a battle of wits with the forces of the law. The picture approaches its climax in a rush of thrilling action, with out their plans before they can be overtaken by the officers.
