Sherlock Holmes Mystery OUR BOARDING HOUSE with MAJOR HOOPLE OUT OUR WAY Coming To State Thursday

Mystery, as only Sherlock Holmes and Dr. Watson can serve it, comes to the State theatre Thursday. "Sherlock Holmes Faces Death" is a suspense packed mystery with the action taking place in a large mansion with various secret chambers. Holmes eventually solves the crime with the aid of a human chessboard. Also opening is "Larceny With Music." Last showing is Wednesday for "Salute to the Marines" and "Spitfire's Blessed Event."

The Ohio is now offering the comedy "Princess O'Rourke," costarring Olivia DeHavilland and Robert Cummings. Now showing on the twin billing at the Sigma are "Fired Wife" and "Trail of Terror." Music and mystery are featured at the Quilna with "Melody Parade" and "Unknown Guest" sharing the program. "Salute to the Marines" and "Spitfire's Blessed Event" are now co-featured at the State theatre. The Lyric's current offering to the entertainment world includes "Good Luck, Mr. Yates" and "No Escape."

"Princess O'Rourke," the new comdey starring Olivia de Havilland and Robert Cummings is now showing at the Ohio theatre. Directed by Norman Krasna, the film is an escapist comedy, with overtones of timely realism.

"Princess O'Rourke" marks Krasna's bow as a director, althohe has been recognized for several years as a foremost member of Hollywood's writing fraternity. Among his best-known plays are lan, LeRoy Mason, Glenn Strange "Bachelor Mother" and "The Devil and Frank Ellis. and Miss Jones."

A strong supporting east features Charles Coburn, Jack Carson today are "Good Luck, Mr. Yates" and Jane Wyman. Others in the and "No Escape." cast include Minor Watson, Gladys Cooper, Harry Davenport and Nan
