Ohio Film Depicts Life Of One Of Great Grid Coaches

With Pat O'Brien again playing the role of a famous football coach, "The Iron Major" came to the Ohio theatre today. The movie depicts the life and leadership of Frank Cravanaugh, one of the few great coaches and a World War I veteran. The show is pucked with real life drama and offers a splendid supporting cast.

Opening at the Quilna prevue Friday are "Dancing Masters" and the technicolor film "In Old Chicago. Friday is also the last day for "The Unknown Guest" and "Melody Parade" at this theatre.

Luise Ranier returns to the screen with "Hostages" opening at the Sigma Saturday. Also opening on the twin billing will be "You're a Lucky Fellow Mr. Smith." Today is the last day for "Fired Wife" and "Trail of Terror."

"Sherlock Holmes Faces Death" and "Larceny With Music" are now showing at the State theatre. "Bandit Ranger" and "Boys of the City" are now playing the Lyric with "Shadow of Douht" and "Gildersleeve's Bad Day" scheduled for the midnite show Saturday.

"Gildersleeve's Bad Day," showing at midnite Saturday at the Lyric is second in the screen series based on the noted "Great Gildersleeve" radio series, moves up another notch in hilarity and pace. It is fast, it is furious, it is funny all the way thru! Harold (Gildersleeve) Peary, in the name role, is decidedly at his best, and puts over the good-natured boob in a cago." manner that shows his undeniable right to screen fame. This latest adventure finds our hero in one mess of trouble after another. Taking a bribe and robbing a safe are only two of Gildy's little misdemeanors in the new film, which again presents Jane Darwell, Nancy Gates, Charles Arnt, Freddie Mercer and other members of the cast of the former production in their usual roles. Also at the late show will be "Shadow of Doubt,

"Bandit Ranger" and "Boys of the City" close immediately prereding the midnite show.

SIGMA

The woman filmgoers will soon cheer is Katina Paxinou, the most i colorful character to come to Hollywood in many years. Having made her screen debut as Pilar, in "For Whom the Bell Tolls," the first lady of the Greek stage follows up her initial success by nortraving a Czech cook SUIT FILED TO farmer. They will be at home at the residence of the bridgeroom's in "Hostages," opening at the Sigma theatre Saturday. People nover associate her with the character she is playing, so cleverly does she conceal her own personality, "The important part of being an actress is creating an illusion," says the lady who has been referred to as the Athenian Bern-Katina Paxinou is a woman of
