SPARS CELEBRATE THEIR DAY IN VICTORY PARADE

The Womens' Coast Guard Reserve, better known as the SPARS, are going to have their day.

Tuesday, has been declared "Spar Day" in Washington, and as its contribution the "Victory Parade of Spotlight Bands" will have Vincent Lopez and his band on hand to aid in the celebration. The "Spotlight" show will be heard coast to coast over WJZ at its usual time 8:30 p. m.,

Courageous and lovely Jane Froman, survivor of the Clipper crack-up in Lisbon, will be a guest singer on "Salute to Youth" over WEAF Tuesday, Jane, star of the new "Artists and Models," is still confined to a wheelchair because of the injuries she received when the Clipper failed. She'll do one of the numbers from her show, "Let's Keep It That Way," and will also sing "Close to You."

Gracic Allen's desire to help the family funds will bring a lawsuit, in the form of Loretta Young, crashing about the ears of husband George on the George Burns and Gracie Allen show over WABC on Tuesday at 8 p. m. EST. Gracie has been doing pretty fair with the articles she dreams up for her favorite magazine, "Gossip." until the one she titles "The Secret Love of Loretta Young," brings a suit for slander, domestic complications, and Loretta Young over to the Burns house in a hurry.

The drinks will be on the house promises Ed Gardner, "Archie" of men are successful in switching the "Duffy's," if the Board of Switch-

MASSACHUSET TS WOMAN NAMED MOST TYPICAL

CHICAGO, Nov 23 - (INS) -Mrs. Francis L. Fraser of Mattapan, Mass., who describes herself as "just another plain American mother," was announced to day as winner in a nationwide contest to determine how the typical American housewife is fighting the war at home.

The contest was sponsored by the National Association of Re-Grocers thru the consumer tail publication it issues.

Mrs. Fraser, wife of a defense worker and mother of four small children between the ages of 9 and 21/2 years, wrote that in addition to doing all her own housework. she raised a victory garden, canned more than 200 jars of food from the garden, raised a victory flock of chicks fed upon table scraps. made regular war bond purchases and donations of blood to the Red Cross.

OIL PRODUCTION RATE BOOSTED FOR DECEMBER

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23 -

(UP) — Petroleum Administrator Harold L. Ickes today certified a December production rate of 4,-694,200 barrels daily to the oil producing states, an increase of barrels daily month's rate. Next month's certification establishes a record production rate for petroleum in this country, Ickes said. The certifications in terms of barrels a day included West Virginia. 16,400; Kentucky, 23,500, and Ohio, 9,600.
