"The Black Swan," At Lyric, One Of Tyrone Power's Best

Pirates and politics, wine, women and song all contribute to the film, "The Black Swan," now appearing at the Lyric theatre. One of Tyrone Power's last films before entering service in the U.S. Marines, it is also one of his greatest. Maureen O'Hara plays the feminine lead. Also showing is "Time to Kill."

ALLIES ASKED BY POPE TO AVOID HITTING VATICAN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29 (INS)-Pope Pius XII was revealed authoritatively today to have asked the United States, Great Britain and Germany for definite guarantees against further bombing of the Vatican.

The Pope's move was said to have followed the hombing of the Vatican by an unidentified plane on the night of Nov. 5.

No difficulty was seen in obtaming such a pledge from the two Allied powers, but the rehability of like assurances from Germany was questioned serious. ly. The Nazis are believed to have perpetrated the Nov. 5 hombing.
