"Crime Doctor" Has Most Importannt Case At Quilna

Starring Warner Baxter as Dr. Ordway, "Crime Doctor," which takes its title and characters from the famous radio progam is now showing at the Quilna theatre. The film gives the doctor his most important case to date, which is the mystery of his own identity. Also playing is "My Kingdom for a Cook" starring Charles "Dingle" Co-

"Never Been Licked" and "Murder at the Waterfront" open at the State Thursday with "Dubarry Was a Lady" and "Seventh Victime" closing Wednesday night. Second only to "GWTW" "For Whom the Bell Tolls," closes Thursday night at the Ohio theatre. The picture will not return to Lima until 1945.

"Tornado" and Lum and Abner in "So This Is Washington" opened Wednesday at the Sigma theatre to play a three days engagement.

Appearing for the first time in Lima is "Beyond the Last Frontier," now featured at the Lyric theatre. Co-billed is "Nobody's Darling."
