lieve "it is ridiculous to expect boys just out of high school to be able to put up a good game against men five to ten years their senior, and with that much additional grid experiences."

The situation was brought to a head by the Iowa Seahawk game Saturday, which Minnesota lost, 32-0. However, Keller said that neither the Scahawks nor any other team had been ruled off future Minnesota schedules, and that there undoubtedly will be future games with service teams if they will agree to use men whose experience approximates that of those available at the Gopher school under war-time conditions."
