MAN CLINGS TO SPEEDING TRAIN FOR 100 MILES

NEWTON, Kas., Jan. 17-(AP) -Raphael Kasdin of Kansas City, news butcher on a Santa Fe transcontinental train hopped off for a quick cup of coffee as the train WASH TUBBS—TICKLISH BUSINESS stopped before dawn.

Hardly settled, he glanced up and saw his train gliding out of the station. He made a dash, jumped on the steps and grabbed the hand rails just as the door closed.

He pounded on the door as the train picked up speed in the yards in a frantic attempt to attract attention. By the time he gave up hope of getting in, the 70-mile an hour flier was moving so fast that a jump might have meant death. The 53-year-old news butcher, numbed in the freezing weather, clung on.

Forty miles to the northeast, at Neva Junction, a freight train crew noticed his plight. They sent a message to Ellinor Junction, 60 miles from Newton, the nearest point with a telegrapher on duty.

The train was flagged down. Trainmen found Kasdin on the ground. He collapsed as the train

Espionage Work Is Film Plot On Screen At Lyric

Brilliant espionage work by the British is the basis of the plot of the film "Appointment in Berlin" now screened at the Lyric theatre and co-starring George Sanders and Marguerite Chapman. This is an unusual film story in that both principles die a tragic death in the end of the picture. o-billed is "My Friend Flicka." "Girl Crazy" is the title of the film now playing at the Ohio theatre,

The Quilna now offers for diversion "It Happened One Night" and "Is Everybody Happy." "True to Life" and "Calling Dr.

Death" are the co-attractions at the Sigma. Double-feature fans are now visiting the State theatre to see "I Dood It" and "You're a Lucky

Fellow, Mr. Smith." QUILNA

The marked popularity of "It Happened One Night" at the Quilna theatre this week attests the favor in which Clark Gable and Claudette Colbert are held among local movie-goers. The romantic pair, teamed together on the screen for the first time in this delightful romantic comedy-drama, enact the most colorful roles in their respective careers, Gable appearing as the knightly ex-newspaper reporter, and Miss Colbert portraying the petulant, supercilious "Ellie Andrews," a runaway heiress mak-
