

Laugh Hit And Musical Open At Quilna Friday

Co-billing a laugh hit and a rollicking musical of the boys overseas the Quilna will open its coming week's billing with the customary Friday preview, "Footlight Glamour" a roster of the Blondie series, heads the program and will have as its co-feature "Doughboys in Ireland." Closing with the late Friday showing is "The Heat's On" which returned Mae West to the screen.

"His Butler's Sister" is the current attraction at the Ohio theatre. Opening Saturday at the Sigma is a twin-bill with "Son of Dracula" and "The Mad Ghoul" slated to thrill audiences. Closing Friday night are "Danger Women at Work" and "The Falcon and Co-eds."

"The Man From Down Under" and "Gildersleeve on Broadway" are now screened at the State film house.

The Lyric theatre now offers "Law of the Saddle" and "Torture Ship."

South Lima movie fans will find "Andy Hardy's Double Life" and "Tennessee Johnson" at the Majestic.

OHIO

Deanna Durbin has been elected the favorite pin-up girl of the 73rd Field Artillery Battalion at Ft. Bragg, N. C., according to a wire she received from the editor of the Ft. Bragg paper.

This makes the 12th service men's popularity poll to be won by Miss Durbin, who is currently starring in "His Butler's Sister," at the Ohio theatre.

The gay comedy-drama was directed by Frank Borzage and produced by Felix Jackson.

LYRIC

One of the toughest men physically in pictures is Lane Chandler, western player who has been appearing steadily in the horse operas for 20 years.

He can be seen roughing it as the heavy against Bob Livingston in the new thriller, "Law of the Saddle," which is showing at the Lyric theatre.

SIGMA

Hungarian inscriptions on tombstones in a graveyard for the "horror" drama, "Son of Dracula," aroused the curiosity of Robert Paige during production of the picture in which he has hectic battles with a werewolf and a bat.

Paige asked Director Robert Siodmak to translate one of the inscriptions.
