Jimmy Gleason Will Be Guest On Woolley Show

Jimmy Gleason, the veteran 'acreen comic, will be guest on the Monty Woolley-Sammy Kaye program, Wednesday at 7 p. m., EST, over WABC. Gleason is a man of no mean wit, himself, and may well prove to be Woolley's toughest match to date.

Lucille Ball, reputedly Hollywood's loveliest screen star of the day, will be guest star of "Star for a Night," which will be presented Wednesday over WJZ from 9:30 to; 10 p. m. Miss Ball will appear in a comedy sketch based on a well known play and will be supported by a cast selected from the studio audience.

"Mr. and Mrs. North," who can't stroll down the street without wandering into a murder, take a quiet walk in which they are met by (1) a girl who insists the man following her intends to kill her, duetable from gross income for and (2) the man following her, who backs up her statement terest payments are not allowable That's the unusual situation that deductions.

"Mr. District Attorney" pulls no of the dead, in "The Case of the Graveyard Swindle" on Wednesday, at 8.30 p. m., over Station WEAF. Jay Jostyn, Vicki Vola and Len Doyle play the starring roles. Peter Van Steeden composes and conducts the music.
