'The Great Gildersleeve' Has His Picture Taken Sunday

Willkie, Dewey, Bricket, et al. are not the only ones with problems these days. "The Great Gildersleeve" has the taste of campaign worries on the Sunday broadcast at 5:30 p. m., EST, over WEAJ when he prepares to have his picture taken in anticipation of his election as mayor of Summerfield.

"The Bride and Deleahanty," Thomas Walsh's story of a pair of detectives sent to a ski resort to trap a Nazi spy, will be dramatized on "American — Ceiling Unlimited," Sunday at 1 p. m., over Station WABC. Joseph Cotten and Constance Moore star in the tele-roles. Miss Moore sings "The Kid with the Hip in His Pants" and

"Poinciana." The orchestra is directed by Wilbur Hatch. Jean Cagney, sister of the famous Jimmy, and herself a picture star of some stature since the release of "Yankee Doodle Dandy," will be starred on "Green Valley, USA" Sunday at 4 p. m., EST, over WJR. H. Brown produces and Frederick Fradkin directs the orchestra.

Three male finalists in the "Metropolitan Opera Auditions of the Air," the tenor Morton Bove, the baritone Hugh Thompson and the bass baritone Kenneth Schon, will be heard in the "Auditions" broadcast on Sunday at 3:30 p. m., over Station WJZ. Schon's solo is "Was Duffel Doch Der Flieder" from Wagner's "Die Meistersinger." Thompson sings "Vision Fugitive" from "Herodiade" by Massenet, and Bove is heard in the duet scene from Gounod's "Faust." Wilfred Pelletier conducts the "Auditions" orchestra.

WATERLOO, N.Y., March 25—(AP)—A large shipment of Navy yarn was received Saturday by the Red Cross Workroom. This is to be made into turtle-neck sweaters, helmets, watch-caps, scarves and socks.
