from New York, Tuesday at 7:30 Aware that Mrs. Foster used to act in high school plays, Judy The "acting bug" bites Judy tries to snare a role for her when a stage play, "Love in the mother and hersett by telling the Slums," comes to town on "A stage manager that her family is poor and her father a drunkard Date With Judy" on Tuesday at When her "little white lies" spread thru the town, Mr. Foster gets redder and redder. In the erd, however, the complications manage to come out all right. Louise Erickson is heard as Judy, with Dix Davis as her brother, Randolph.

"Let Yourself Go," Milton Berle's rip-roaring new half hour of spontaneous madness, continues its merry and unpredictable way over Station WJZ on Tuesday at 6 p. m. Informality with a generous dash of the slapstick is the keynote in this series, in which participants are invited to do just about as they please, for cash prizes ranging up to $100.
