"Flight Command" Opens Thursday On State Screen

Co-starring Robert Taylor and Ruth Hussey, "Flight Command" opens Thursday at the State. Co-billed will be "Love Crazy" with William Powell and Myrna Loy, the latter film being brought back by popular demand. Closing at the theatre Wednesday night are "The" Human Comedy" and "Rookies in Burma."

Current at the Ohio is the moving story "Song of Russia" with several fine musical scores lending background for Robert Taylor and Susan Peters.

The sad tale of many guls with the wolf at the door and their clever ways of outwitting him bring many laughs to the audiences at the Quilna where "Beautiful But Broke" is now sharring the marquee with "Cowboy Can-

Opening Thursday at the Lyric will be "Return of the Rangers" and "Hoosiera Holiday" while "Tales of Manhattan" and "Rio Rita close Wednesday night.

LYRIC

The singing of Jim Newill in those Texas Rangers western in which he is co-starred with Dave "Tex" O'Brien, is heard to best advantage in his latest, "Return to the Rangers," which starts screening Thursday at the Lyric theatre. Human Comedy" and "Rookies in Newill sings two fine numbers, "Headin' Westward" and "Paradisc Trail," the first being written by O'Brien and himself. Newill's powerful baritone is featured on the radio, and he has playing at the Quilna theatre is a hit class.
