Mae West Turns On Heat In Latest Film At Lyric

With the coming of spring, Mae West turns the heat on at the Lyric theatre where her latest film, "The Heat's On" is now showing. The movie also features Xavier Cugat and his rhumba orchestra. Sharing the billing is "The Kansas."

Current at the Ohio is "Passage to Marseille."

Quilna fans are now viewing "The Sullivans," the real life story of America's own heroic family.

The home front headache that is necessary to the war effort is dealt with in "Rationing" which is cobilled with "Amazing Mr. Forest" at the Sigma.

In glorious technicolor is the new film version of "Desert Song" which is sharing honors with "Moonlight in Vermont" at the LYRIC "The Heat's On" at the Lyric theatre is being turned off. This sizzling picture of laughs and rhythms starring Mae West, Victor Moore and William Gaxton will end its spectacular run on Tuesday night,

Made to order for laugh-lovers. five-hounds and just plain moviegoers who like their picture entertainment to be entertaining, "The Heat's On" has a scintillating story, torrid dances, tuneful tunes and comical comedy.

Xavier Cugat and his rhumba orchestra with glamorous songstress Lina Romay; Hazel Scott with song and light-fingered licks on the piano; plus dancer David Lichine and a fast-stepping chorus of boys and girls, help plump the entertainment mercury to the boiling point.

The production was directed with his customary finesse and vigor by Gregory Ratoff. Co-billed is "The Kansan."
