Long Lost Sister

HOLLYWOOD -(U.R)- Screen Actress Fay Emerson said today she was convinced that Virginia Emerson, Grand Rapids, Mich., was her long lost sister, after a long distance telephone conversation Thursday.

The sisters and their brothers, Larry, now a corporal in the South Pacific, and Herbie, became separated 13 years ago when their mother divorced their father. Faye, Larry, and Herbie came to California with their father and Virginia remained in the Midwest with their mother.

Cudahy Firm Sues to Stop WLB Directive

WASHINGTON -(U.P)- Cudahy Bros., meat packing firm of Cudahy, Wis., is asking federal court to restrain the war labor board (WLB) from attempting to enforce a directive pertaining to union maintenance and a checkoff system for the firm's 1,600 production employes and 300 nonproduction workers.

In a suit filed late Thursday, the company said the WLB never conducted public hearings on issues involved. It asks a declaratory judgment against WLB and Economic Stabilization Director Fred M. Vinson to prevent any action to
