

ACTION, COMEDY FILMS HIGHLIGHT LOCAL THEATRE DOCKETS

"MADAME CURIE" WILL OPEN SUNDAY AT STATE THEATRE

Action films are taking the lead in local theatres this week-end along with comedies. Perhaps this trend is for the benefit of those who find it difficult to sit still for a slow moving film as soon as a spring is well on its way.

Opening Sunday at the State will be "Madame Curie" with Greer Garson and Walter Pidgeon providing humor along with science. Co-featured will be "Week-End Pass," a bang-up comedy. Playing for the last times Saturday night are "Jack London" and "Mad Ghoul."

Current at the Ohio is "Uncertain Glory."

Murder with a glamorous touch is thrilling fans at the Quilna where "Nine Girls" is sharing honors with "Hey Rookie."

Donald O'Connor does it again in "Chip Off the Old Block" with able assistance from Peggy Ryan and Ann Blyth. The film is at the Sigma along with "Tunisian Victory."

Saturday midnight will find "Sins of Bali" and "She Devil Island" at the Lyric theatre to be followed by "Eyes in the Night" and "Lure of the Wasteland" on Sunday. Closing just prior to the midnight showing is "Hail to the Rangers" and "Unknown Guest."

"Fallen Sparrow" and "Son of Dracula" are now at the Majestic in south Lima.

Jap atrocities hold sway on the screen of the Drive-In theatre where "Behind the Rising Sun" is now showing.

The automobile industry has cut production costs of light tanks by half in the past two years.

TROUBLE AHEAD—Blind detective Edward Arnold, Donna Reed and Ann Harding find that a formula for an important military invention is still safe from Axis spies in this scene from "Eyes in the Night" at the Lyric theatre Sunday.

EDWARD ARNOLD IS STARRED IN STRANGE LYRIC DRAMA

"Eyes in the Night" brings Edward Arnold to the screen in the strangest role of his career. In the picture, which comes Sunday to the Lyric theatre, he enacts a blind detective, who, with the aid of his "seeing eye" dog, his uncanny sense of touch, smell and hearing, solves a murder mystery and captures a murderous foreign spy ring.

Arnold is teamed with Ann Harding, just returned to the screen after a lengthy tour of South America. Miss Harding plays the wife of an inventor, and Donna Reed her stepdaughter, who suspecting her of murder, hates her. Arnold is called into the case and, in solving the mystery, reconciles them. Reginald Denny plays the husband and father, an inventor whose war discoveries have brought on the machinations of the spies.

Co-billed will be "Lure of the Wasteland." Playing Saturday midnight are "Sins of Bali," and "She Devil Island." Closing just prior to the late Saturday billing are "Hail to the Rangers" and "Unknown Guest."

LOVELY MAIDS ARE SUSPECTED OF MURDER IN "NINE GIRLS"

"Nine Girls" is at the Quilna theatre with nine luscious lovelies! Count them! Nine beauties and each one of them could have committed murder. Each one is a logical suspect . . . love . . . hate . . . jealousy . . . primitive emotions! A policeman's dream come true! Nine suspects in a snow-bound lodge where love walked hand in hand with murder. Every suspect a beauty . . . every alibi a "beaut" . . . every clue a cue for more murder! It's the year's most baffling mystery!

The cast of "Nine Girls" is composed of Evelyn Keyes, Anita Louise, Lynn Merrick, Nina Foch, Jinx Falkenburg, Leslie Brooks, Jeff Donnell, Shirley Mills, Marcia Mae Jones and Ann Harding, plus a male contingent, including Willard Robertson, William Demarest and Lester Matthews.

It was directed by Leigh Jason from the screen play by Karen DeWolf and Connie Lee and adapted from the Broadway play of the same title by Al Martin.

"Hey Rookie" is the second attraction.

Ranging from the sub-Arctic to the tropics, the United States, including territories and dependencies, has a total of 3,773,993 square miles inhabited by 160,621,231 people.

Adolphe Menjou Stars In "Inner Sanctum" Mystery

Portraying a friend in chic clothing, the sartorially splendid Adolphe Menjou joins the ranks of the fearless who have ventured behind the squeaking door, when he stars on "Inner Sanctum Mystery" over WABC Saturday at 7:30 p. m., EST. Surrounded with a stellar cast of macabre mimes, Menjou's appearance threatens to be one of the most gruesome in the "Inner Sanctum" annals.

The Splendor Special has pulled in from Cinema City carrying the lovely, languorous Mary Astor to star on the Barry Wood-Patsy Kelly Show over WEAF Saturday

PROBE DEATH OF BOY KILLED UNDER TRAIN

FOSTORIA, O., April 29—(INS)—Seneca-co authorities today pushed an investigation in the death of Donald Haynes, 16-year-old Fostoria high school sophomore, killed Thursday when he fell beneath the wheels of a moving Chesapeake and Ohio train.

Railroad officials said the youth apparently hopped a ride on the train, jumped to the ground, struck a switch signal and was hurled under the wheels.
